JUST TWO DAYS MORE TO BUY VICTORY BONDS

CITY LEAPS AHEAD AS LOAN CAMPAIGN NEARS CONCLUSION

Large Investment Recorded Yesterday; City's Subscription Swell Day's Total; Victoria Must Sus-tain High Daily Average to Reach Objective Alone

A sharp rise in Victory Loan investments in Greater Victoria was experienced yesterday when, according to official figures issued at noon, $275,000 was subscribed. The city's check for $300,000 was also received, making the total subscription for the day, considerably over the half million mark.

But two more days remain in which Victoria can reach her objective which is the investment of $5,000,000, exclusive of the Provincial Government's subscription. Yesterday $275,000 was invested, and it is expected that the subscriptions during the last of the drive will continue around that figure. Approximately $4,000,000 has so far been raised, and checks for $250,000, which will mature on Saturday, are now in the hands of the officials. In addition to this some of the municipal investments have yet to be received.

It is therefore necessary for the city to subscribe at the daily rate of $275,000 to-day, and the last two days of the campaign, if her objective is to be reached without Governmental assistance. The canvassers, though they are covering for the most part districts which have been thoroughly gone over before, report many increases in previous investments, and that a large number of citizens, who delayed their subscriptions, are now signing their applications. Sales Chairman Kenneth Ferguson is confident that his workers will produce the necessary sum.

The figures yesterday and on a corresponding day last year were as follows:

1918.
16th Day—Wednesday—November 13.
Canvassers $459,100
Banks 124,399
Including City's
vestment $375,000
Grand total to date $1,392,250

Applications 557
Total applications 8367
1917.

15th Day—Wednesday—November 28.
Canvassers $71,400
Banks 73,600
Grand total to date $145,000
Total applications 7113

These figures do not include the half-million dollar investment of the Provincial Government.

Canvassers' Competition.
All the bond-selling teams in the local organization are in a race for subscriptions, now that the inter-team competition has commenced. The standing of the teams, designated by the name of their captains, and on the basis of the number of applications signed, was as follows up to last night: A. McKeachie, 53; T. E. Marriner, 48; J. Moss, 47; H. Howat, 37; H. Briggs, 31; C. Bishop, 27; J. W. Hudson, 25; A. Peden, 25; R. H. Shanks, 21; P. Lewin, 20; J. C. Wilson, 19; W. Murphy, 13; G. Brown, 11.

Explains Plan.
Now that the drive is nearly over, the canvassers are urging the citizens of the city to increase their investments in the Loan by taking advantage of the ten-month installment plan, inaugurated by the banks of Canada. It is pointed out that this may be the last time Canadians will be given an opportunity of investing money at five and a half per cent, and with the advantage of having it free from taxes. As only two days remain in which subscriptions can be made, it is of interest to everyone to investigate this easy system of investing in the country.

Addressees Soldiers.
George Bushby, in charge of the Honor Emblem contest, addressed the men at the boxing contest at the Willows last night, exhorting them to utilize arrangements made by which bonds can be bought on the installment plan through the paymaster's office. Sgt. Lawrence and J. E. Andrews operated among the Siberians during the evening with very gratifying results. Some $25,000 was invested by the boys in khaki, many of whom have voluntarily given over a large proportion of their pay for months to come in order to lend it to the Dominion. The canvassers were unable in the time at their command to visit every man, and they are confident that to-day will see a big increase in this subscription. The soldiers are setting a splendid example to other sections of the community by their unstinted response to the loan.

Copenhagen, Nov. 14.—Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, according to The Associated Press, wished to extend hospitality to Wilhelm Hohenzollern, the former German Kaiser, while he remained in Holland. However, the newspaper adds, as Holland itself feels the coming days, it was found desirable that Wilhelm Hohenzollern should live as a private individual.

Dominion Chairman Issues
Stirring Appeal for Canadians to Rally to Loan

Toronto, Nov. 14.—While we can never be absolutely certain until returns are actually received, I am confident we are within sight of our $500,000,000 objective, said E. R. Wood, Chairman of the Dominion Executive of the Victory Loan, when interviewed last evening. On Monday we felt some apprehension lest the spirit of relaxation might extend for some time and interfere with the success we have been working for.

Further Sacrifice Needed.
"Our apprehension has proved to be absolutely groundless. The many workers and subscribers alike returned to their task on Tuesday morning and kept at it since the response has been simply magnificent. It forecasts a success unparalleled in Canada's financial history. Evidently the public appreciates at its true value the new situation created by the cessation of hostilities. That situation is a serious one—not one to cause alarm, but serious. Our boys at the front have finished their task as far as actual fighting is concerned. But our war task at home will not be completed until we have restored the country to normal conditions. That is the task which we must bend our efforts now. When one considers the sacrifices our people have made in the last four years of war, one can not but be certain that they are capable of making whatever further sacrifices or self-denial that may be necessary. The problem of the transaction or reconstruction period is entirely one of finance. By comparison therefore the (Concluded on page 4.)

ALBERTA SHOOTING FOLLOWED BY CHARGE

Canadian, of German Birth, Charged With Killing Victory Loan Canvasser

Calgary, Nov. 14.—An open verdict that Tip Blaine had come to his death from the effects of a gunshot wound inflicted by Albert Arnold was returned last night by a coroner's jury at Drumheller, which had investigated the circumstances of the killing of Blaine, a Victory Loan canvasser, at Verdant Valley on Monday night. Arnold is a naturalized Canadian of German birth, and is said to have been at one time, an officer in the German army.

A preliminary hearing of Arnold was set for 10 o'clock this morning before Justice of the Peace Sibbald. According to the testimony before the coroner's jury, Blaine, a barber in Drumheller, headed a party of Victory Loan canvassers who entered Arnold's home at night, after knocking at the door and receiving no response. The house was in darkness. Blaine, who had a British flag draped around him, opened an inner door leading to Arnold's bedroom. He was met with a rifle shot and fell dead. The others of the party fled, but returned later, and were told by Arnold that they could have the body after he dressed in five minutes. Waiting that time, they entered and found Blaine dead and Arnold gone.

Arnold was arrested while eating breakfast at a Chinese restaurant in Delhi.

Polish Troops Cross the Boundary Line Into Upper Silesia

Copenhagen, Nov. 14.—Polish troops, according to a dispatch from Berlin, have entered upper Silesia, Prussia.

High Commissioners Appointed by France for Alsace-Lorraine

Paris, Nov. 14.—The Cabinet to-day considered questions concerning the organization of Alsace-Lorraine under French occupancy. Three High Commissioners were appointed. They are Georges Maringer, Commissioner-General of Security for Strasbourg; Albert Tirman, State Counsellor for Metz, and Henri Poulet, State Counsellor for Colmar.

2,000 Employees of Military Service Branch Not Needed

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Some 2,000 employees of the Military Service Branch throughout the Dominion are to be released shortly, unless unexpected developments occur. A sufficient staff will be retained to keep the organization together for any need which might arise till the conclusion of peace.

The Military Service Act was suspended some days ago.

New Grand Duke of Baden Being Called Upon to Abdicate

Basel, Nov. 14.—The revolutionary governments at Mannheim, Rastatt and Heidelberg have summoned the Grand Duke of Baden to abdicate.

Two Marshals of France Are to Be Honored by Paris

Paris, Nov. 14.—(Havas.)—The Municipal Council of Paris has initiated a plan, with the help of Premier Clemenceau, to hold a ceremonial meeting at the City Hall in honor of Marshal Joffre and Marshal Poch. During the meeting it is planned to present commemorative medals to the two great soldiers.

Voluntary Censorship Withdrawn To-day in United States

Washington, Nov. 14.—Withdrawal of all voluntary censorship requests under which the American publishers have been working since the United States went to war, was announced to-day by George Creel, chairman of the Committee on Public Information, after conferences with Secretaries Baker and Daniels.

Balfour in Paris; Mr. Lloyd George About to Go There

Paris, Nov. 14.—Rt. Hon. Arthur J. Balfour, the British Foreign Secretary, and Baron Sonnino, the Italian Foreign Minister, will arrive in Paris to-day. The Journal says Mr. Lloyd George, Prime Minister of Great Britain, will follow the Foreign Secretary shortly.

On their arrival, it is added, discussions will begin to prepare the preliminaries for peace.

TALAT, ENVER AND DJEMAL FLEE FROM CONSTANTINOPLE

Paris, Nov. 14.—(Havas.)—Turks residing in Switzerland are informed that Talat Pasha, former Grand Vizier and Minister of Finance of Turkey; Enver Pasha, former Minister of War, and Djemal Pasha, former Minister of Marine, have fled from Constantinople. They are accused of embezzlement and other crimes, according to advices received here.

NO-STRIKE ORDER DONE AWAY WITH

Ottawa Cabinet Revokes Its Order-in-Council Forbidding Strikes

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—The following statement was handed out this morning by the Minister of Labor:

"On the recommendation of the Minister of Labor, the Government yesterday revoked the 'no strike' Order-in-Council issued on October 11, 1918. 'The immediate necessity of the original Order was caused by a threatened strike, staged for Thanksgiving Day by some 5,000 labor men. The Order was not regarded by the Government as placing any disability upon the great majority of the labor organizations, who had accepted the Government's war labor policy as announced by Order-in-Council in July last and were submitting all their grievances to the tribunals designated, which were being operated with perfect success. 'The 'no-strike' Order was issued only for the purpose of maintaining industrial peace during the continuance of the war, and is cancelled because it has served its purpose and is no longer necessary."

FLEETS MUST BE DISARMED AT ONCE

Food Plans for Europe Demand Internment of German and German-Held Ships

London, Nov. 14.—The problems connected with the policing and provisioning of Russia and the Central Powers hinge primarily upon the immediate disarmament of the German fleet and the Russian warships held by the Germans and those under control of the Ukrainian Government in the Black Sea. The warships which are held by the Bolsheviks in the Finnish Gulf also must be put out of commission. Without freedom of movement in the Black Sea and the Baltic Sea, the Entente Powers would have great difficulty in affording economic relief to Central Europe, as well as Scandinavia. Consequently, the attitude of the German navy toward the armistice terms is watched with eagerness by the Entente officials who are anxious to prevent starvation among the belligerents and to restore normal social and economic conditions among the suffering millions.

Baltic Regions.
Speedy action is necessary for the relief of regions adjacent to the Baltic Sea, as many of its ports will be ice-bound within two months, and the congested and disrupted condition of the railways makes relief by land routes uncertain. The Allied Powers have shown no disposition to deal with the Bolsheviks. While Russia remains under the control of the Soviet, therefore, there seems to be little hope of feeding Moscow, Petrograd and other large cities there.

If the Bolshevik movement—which has been started against Finland—should be successful, Finland also would be placed temporarily beyond relief. The food conditions are more favorable in the Ukraine and the Caucasus, where there is much grain stored which the peasants probably would sell if offered manufactured goods or money with reasonable buying powers. If the Skoropadski Government should survive the peace shock and German troops which now occupy the Ukraine do not join with the Russian Bolsheviks, the Ukraine should return to normal conditions rapidly after the Black Sea is opened. It is supposed to have adequate stores of grain for its own use.

Light Cruiser Carries Delegates to Discuss With Brit- ish Delegates Carrying Out of Armistice Terms; U. S. Troops Approach Metz and Strassburg

Berlin, Nov. 14.—By Wireless to London—The German light cruiser Koenigsberg put to sea at 1 p. m. on November 13 with envoys from the Workmen's and Soldiers' Council of the German fleet in order to meet representatives of the British Admiralty.

The chief of the German high seas forces, Admiral Hipper, is taking part in the negotiations as adviser in the deliberations concerning the execution of the naval conditions of the armistice.

Paris, Nov. 14.—4.15 a. m.—American troops have crossed the German frontier towards Metz and Strassburg.

Paris, Nov. 14.—4.25 a. m.—Marshal Foch, Commander-in-Chief of the Allied forces, will make a solemn entry into Strassburg and into Metz on Sunday in the presence of President Poincare and Premier Clemenceau.

GERMAN TROOPS ARE WARNED PILLAGING MUST BE STOPPED

London, Nov. 14, 1.14 p. m.—German soldiers are committing acts of violence against Allied inhabitants and are destroying and pillaging, contrary to the terms of the armistice, according to a French official wireless message received here to-day.

The message, which was sent by the Allied high command to the German high command, says that the Allied command expects the German command to take measures to stop the violations. If the acts should increase, it is added, the Allied command will take steps to end them.

The Germans are violating the armistice at different points, especially in Belgium, in the region of Brussels.

F. W. Hohenzollern Interned.
Washington, Nov. 14.—Official information reached the State Department to-day through neutral sources that the former German Crown Prince has arrived in Holland and has been interned.

In East Prussia.
Basel, Nov. 13.—Via London, Nov. 14.—The revolutionary movement is spreading strongly in East Prussia. A semi-official dispatch from Berlin reports that Koenigsberg, Allenstein, Insterberg, Gumbinnen and Loetzen are in the hands of the revolutionists. Governor von Batoeki, of Posen, former German Food Minister, has put himself at the disposal of the revolutionists.

Schleswig.
Copenhagen, Nov. 14.—North Schleswig newspapers are publishing an appeal signed by 302 Danish associations demanding that at the peace negotiations Germany settle the North Schleswig question on the basis of the right of self-determination for all peoples.

Will Be Confiscated.
London, Nov. 14, 1.06 p. m.—The property of the Prussian Crown will be confiscated, according to a German wireless message received here to-day.

According to a proclamation issued by the Prussian Government, the embroidered property of the Prussian Crown will be placed under the administration of the Ministry of Finance. Property which is not entailed but which is personal to the former King and his family will not be affected.

German Delegation.
Paris, Nov. 14.—Philipp Scheidemann, the German majority Socialist leader, probably will head the German delegates at the peace conference, according to a Zurich dispatch to L'Information. In diplomatic circles in Zurich it is not believed that the German delegation can be nominated before the end of the week. It is pointed out there that it will be difficult to make up a common delegation now that Germany has two separate republics apparently without relations between themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Hapsburg.
Geneva, Nov. 13.—Via London, Nov. 14.—Charles Hapsburg, the former Austrian Emperor, and Zita Hapsburg, his wife, according to The Vienna Arbeiter Zeitung, left Vienna last night on a special train. They are expected to cross the Swiss frontier to-day at Buchs, on the left bank of the Rhine.

The former Austrian Emperor and Empress probably will reside in a town on the Swiss shore of Lake Constance until peace has been signed.

Hindenburg's Efforts.
London, Nov. 14.—Field-Marshal von Hindenburg remains as head of the supreme German army command, according to a German wireless message received here, which gives the text of a message he has sent to the army commanders ordering them to lead their troops home in order and discipline.

Hindenburg's order reads:
"To all, and especially the army (Concluded on page 2.)

KING GEORGE SENDS MESSAGE TO STATES

Commends Republic for Share in War; President Wilson Replies

London, Nov. 14.—(British Wireless Service).—King George, on the signing of the armistice, sent a message of congratulation to President Wilson and thanks to the people of the United States for their aid in the war. The President cabled a reply of warm appreciation.

The text of the King's message follows: "At this moment of universal gladness I send you, Mr. President, and the people of your great republic, a message of congratulation and deep thanks in my own name and that of the people of this Empire."

"It is, indeed, a matter of solemn thanksgiving that the peoples of our two countries, akin in spirit as in speech, should to-day be united in this greatest of democracy's achievements. I thank you and the people of the United States for the high and noble part which you have played in this glorious chapter of history and freedom."

Wilson's Reply.

The text of President Wilson's cablegram follows: "Your generous and gracious message is most warmly appreciated, and you may rest assured that our hearts on this side of the Atlantic are the more completely filled with joy and satisfaction, because we know the great partnership of interests and of sentiments to which we belong. We are happy to be associated in this time of triumph with the Government and people on whom we are so sure we can count for co-operation in the delicate and difficult tasks which remain to be performed in order that the high purposes of the war may be realized and established in the reign of equitable justice and lasting peace."

PROVINCES AND CITIES WILL GET TROPHIES

Articles Captured by Canadian Troops to Be Distributed Throughout Canada

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—In view of the number of requests received at militia headquarters for allotments of war trophies to provinces, municipalities and various public bodies, it is pointed out that trophies and war material will be dealt with in accordance with a considered plan and that it is impossible at the present time to deal with any such applications or requests.

When the vast amount of war material is assembled and a proper division made, there undoubtedly will be a very large number of trophies shipped to Canada for presentation as a permanent memorial of the achievements of the Canadian troops. It is hoped that a suitable building can be provided for the reception of a representative national collection. When sections for this have been made there will still remain a large number of trophies, the property of the Canadian people, and these will be distributed to the provinces, cities and other municipalities applying for them, under a sufficient guarantee for their safekeeping. A special officer or a committee will be appointed to carry out such arrangements and the claims of all parts of the country will receive impartial consideration.

In the meantime, a completed list of all stores captured by Canadian troops is being prepared. This list will show the location of each object, its registered number and the name of the particular unit, if any, which claims its capture. Until the available quantity of material and trophies of all kinds is ascertained and a scheme of distribution completed, allotments of trophies can not be made.

During 1916 and 1917 two shipments of trophies to Canada were made and the third was received in July, 1918. These, with a collection presented by Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig and a collection presented by the French Government, form a Canadian exhibit, one section of which is now on view in the United States and the other in Western Canada. Many Canadian trophies have been considered serviceable and have been requisitioned for use, principally by the navy for coast defence and for arming merchant vessels. Those which are still in existence after the declaration of peace will be transferred to Canada.

AUSTRIAN EMPEROR ISSUED PROCLAMATION WHEN HE ABDICATED

Copenhagen, Nov. 13.—Via London, Nov. 14.—Emperor Charles on Monday, according to the Vienna Correspondence Bureau, issued the following proclamation:

"Since my accession I have incessantly tried to rescue my peoples from this tremendous war. I have not delayed the re-establishment of constitutional rights or the opening of a way for the people to substantial national development."

"Filled with an unalterable love for my people, I will not, with my person, be a hindrance to their free development. I acknowledge the decision taken by German-Austria to form a separate state."

"The people has, by its deputies, taken charge of the Government. I relinquish every participation in the administration in the state. Likewise I have released the members of the Austrian Government from their offices."

"May the German-Austrian people realize harmony from the new adjustment. The happiness of my peoples was my aim from the beginning."

"My warmest wishes are that an internal peace will be able to heal the wounds of this war."

PROPOSAL LABOR CLASSES OF AMERICANS FORM CONFEDERATION

Laredo, Tex., Nov. 14.—The organization of the workers of Mexico and Central and South America and the formation of a reciprocal confederation of all the union bodies of America was urged yesterday by William B. Wilson, United States Secretary of Labor, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a series of addresses to representatives of the countries south of here. The formation of such a confederation, it was pointed out by President Gompers, would be the first and chief step in the organization of the forces of peace and humanity and would forever prevent a repetition of the attempt by forces of autocracy and imperialism to catch the world napping and impose their will on all nations.

MOVES BEING MADE TO HAVE TEUTON WAR-MAKERS TRIED

Paris, Nov. 14.—Several members of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday proposed in the Chamber a resolution requesting the Government to enter into an agreement with the other Allied Governments for the trial of all former rulers who were responsible for the great European war. Under the resolution the extradition of the rulers would be requested, no matter in what country they have taken refuge.

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—Via London, Nov. 14.—The Independent Socialists of Germany have demanded the arrest of Admiral von Tirpitz, former German Minister of the Navy; Dr. Wulfgang Kapp, president of the Fatherland Party; Admiral von Holtzendorff, former Chief of the Naval General Staff; and others, and the establishment of a tribunal to try all persons primarily responsible for the continuance of the war and hindering peace. This information is contained in a Berlin dispatch to the Telegraph.

EX-KAISER WAS KEPT WAITING BY DUTCH

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—Via London, Nov. 14.—Wilhelm Hohenzollern, who as German Kaiser never liked to be kept waiting, had to remain Sunday in a railway car at a small wayside station until word came from The Hague permitting him to proceed on his way and telling him which road to go. The former Kaiser, continues a contributor to a Maastrecht newspaper, felt his position keenly and he kept himself hidden, in a railway car throughout his stay at the station.

Some of his companions were much more visibly impressed with the situation than the former Kaiser himself.

MEAT SUPPLY SUBJECT OF A DISCUSSION IN BRITISH COMMONS

London, Nov. 14.—In a discussion in the House of Commons yesterday concerning the food question and control of the meat supply, the American meat trust was criticized severely by home speakers.

Major Waldorf Astor, Parliamentary Secretary to the Food Ministry, said that the trust controlled more than fifty per cent of the available and importable meat supplies, which fact constituted a serious menace. However, he added, the Inter-Allied Food Council set up by the Food Controllers and which would buy in the world's markets, was going to be stronger than the trust. It would be able to dictate to the trust if necessary and would be able to fix reasonable prices for the consumers.

Mrs. Jos. Parks and Daughter.

Girl Had St. Vitus' Dance

MOST remarkable results are being obtained from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in the treatment of children who suffer from ailments arising from thin, watery blood and exhausted nerves, such as rickets, St. Vitus' dance and convulsions.

This food cure is so natural and gentle in action and yet so potent in restoring nervous energy that weak, puny children soon show the benefits of its use.

Mrs. Jos. Parks, 72 Picton street east, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"Five years ago my little girl was taken ill with St. Vitus' dance, and for four years we doctored her, trying several doctors and different remedies without curing her. She could not walk or get around at all, and we had to feed her, as she was unable to hold a spoon in her hand. Her tongue was affected so that we could scarcely understand her when she talked. One day a friend of mine who knew of the benefits of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food advised me to give my little girl some. I acted upon her advice, and soon could notice a difference. She was quieting down and commenced to eat better. I continued the treatment for some time, and she gradually got stronger and healthier. She recovered from her nervous trouble and was able to get around nicely. We are very grateful to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the cure it effected for our daughter."

School life seems to take too much out of many children who are naturally nervous and easily worried and excited. For such there is nothing like this great nerve restorative to revitalize the depleted nerve cells and to bring back the color and robust health of childhood.

PROTEST MADE BY GERMAN DELEGATES

Armistice Envoys Say Evacuation Period Fixed by Allies
Too Short

Paris, Nov. 14.—A declaration sent to the French Government early this week by the German envoys who went to Marshal Foch's headquarters to sign the armistice between the Allies and Germany has been published here. It protests against some features of the terms agreed to by the Germans and to which they objected verbally at their first meeting with Marshal Foch. The declaration reads: "The German Government naturally will make every effort to aid in the carrying out of the obligations imposed upon it. Its envoys recognize that on certain points a conciliatory spirit has been shown toward their suggestions. Consequently they can consider the observations which they submitted on November 9 referring to conditions of the armistice and the reply they received on November 10 as forming an integral part of the complete convention. They can not permit any doubt to exist, however, on the fact that the shortness of the delay fixed for evacuation and the handing over of indispensable means of transportation threatens to provoke a state of affairs which, without the German Government and people being at fault, may render the execution of the conditions of the armistice impossible. The envoys further consider it their duty, referring to their reiterated verbal and written declarations, to state once more with the utmost energy that the execution of this convention must throw the German people into anarchy. "After the public manifestations which preceded the laying down of the armistice, conditions might have been expected which, while giving our adversaries full military security, would have put an end to the sufferings of non-combatant women and children. The German people, which for fifty months held out against a world of enemies, will maintain its liberty and unity in spite of every violence."

Republics Proclaimed.
Basel, Nov. 13.—(Via London, Nov. 14.)—A dispatch from Berlin says Grand Duke William Ernest of Saxony has abdicated. The dispatch adds that republics have been proclaimed in Württemberg and Hesse. The new Government in Baden has been constituted under the presidency of the Socialist Herr Jesse.

The former Grand Duke William Ernest is forty-two years old. Saxony, Weimer is in Central Germany, in Thuringia. Among the important towns in the Grand Duchy are Weimar, which is the capital, and Jena, the famous university town.

State of Siege Ended.
Copenhagen, Nov. 13.—(Via London, Nov. 14.)—A Berlin dispatch says the Workers' and Soldiers' Council, in addition to abolishing the censorship, has lifted the state of siege and ordered religious liberty and political amnesty.

Henry Hohenzollern.
Copenhagen, Nov. 13.—(Via London, Nov. 14.)—Prince Henry of Prussia has been discovered at the old castle owned by Duke Friederick Ferdinand and Schleswig-Holstein at Eckernförde, according to dispatches received here. He declares himself in accord with the new regime in Germany.

Lieut. Krupp von Schlen and Halbach, husband of Bertha Krupp and head of the great Krupp Works, fled to Holland with the former German Kaiser, according to a dispatch received by the Exchange Telegraph.

A dispatch from London on November 10 said that Bertha Krupp's husband and Bertha Krupp had been arrested by revolutionaries who were in control of Essen, where the Krupp works are located.

Bavarian Protest.
Basel, Nov. 13.—(Via London, Nov. 14.)—Declaring that the new democratic state of Bavaria is not responsible for the faults of the old regime in Germany, a manifesto has been sent from Munich to the new Federal Government of Germany, asking that complaint over the conditions of the armistice be sent to the Entente Powers.

It is stated that the terms agreed to by Germany in stopping hostilities are of such a nature as to prevent rapid reestablishment of order in Bavaria. A Basel dispatch early in the week reported that the Bavarian Government had sent a protest to President Wilson, complaining that the terms of the armistice were burdensome to that part of Germany and that the new Government was in no way to blame for the offences of the militarists who formerly ruled Germany.

Back to Germany.
Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—(Via London, Nov. 14.)—Long trains crowded with German soldiers, who left the front of their own initiative have arrived in Hanover and cities in Westphalia, according to dispatches to The Handelsblad.

U Boats.
London, Nov. 14.—Five German submarines, according to London dispatches, were seen on Wednesday. They were requested the naval authorities to intern them, according to a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen, which added that the submarine commanders said they did not dare to return to Germany.

ARRIVAL OF ALLIED FLEET AT TURKISH CAPITAL ANNOUNCED

London, Nov. 14.—An Allied fleet arrived off Constantinople yesterday, having passed through the Bosphorus on Tuesday, the Admiral announced last evening. British and Indian troops occupying the forts paraded as the ships passed.

GREAT CELEBRATION BY GRAND FLEET

London, Nov. 14.—(Canadian Press Dispatch from Reuters.)—A marvelous night scene was witnessed off the Scottish coast when the Grand Fleet celebrated the armistice. On a 30-mile line warships of every description were illuminated. Myriad of aërial lights, creating an awesome sound. Hundreds of searchlights played fantastically. Fireworks and star shells were lighted. The celebration, after lasting an hour, ceased as suddenly as it began.

VAN DYKE SPEAKS OF EX-KAISER IN HOLLAND

Boston, Nov. 14.—Henry R. Vandyke, former United States Minister to The Netherlands, said last night that Holland always has been a country in which international law has been honored and respected and that "we can feel sure in regard to the latest fugitive who has taken refuge within her borders that Holland will do what is in accordance with the law."

"The very existence of Holland," said Dr. Vandyke, "as a small independent and intensely democratic country, depends upon the sanction of international law."

"The ex-Kaiser's case must be settled in accordance with justice, and while he is waiting for this settlement, in my opinion there could be no better place for him to be kept."

PETAIN PRAISES HIS SPLENDID TROOPS

Paris, Nov. 14.—General Petain, the Commander-in-Chief of the French armies, has addressed an Order of the Day to his troops eulogizing the tenacity and energy shown during the four years by France, which had to vanquish the foe "in order not to die."

He asks the soldiers "who will occupy German territory not to permit their resentment over German violations in France to lead them astray and to respect persons and property."

"After having beaten the adversary by arms," the general continues, "you will impose upon him the dignity of your attitude and the world will wonder what to admire more, your conduct in success or your heroism in battle."

The order concludes by eulogizing the soldier's dead and with a salutation to the bereaved fathers, mothers, widows and orphans.

PORTO RICO FEELS TWO EARTHQUAKES

San Juan, Porto Rico, Nov. 14.—Two earthquakes occurred in Porto Rico Tuesday, the first at 8 o'clock in the morning and the second at 8 o'clock in the evening. Both shocks caused some damage in cities which had reported losses in the earthquake of last October, but there was no additional loss of life.

BOLSHEVIKI TROOPS MARCHING ON FINLAND

Stockholm, Nov. 13.—Via London, Nov. 14.—Russian Bolsheviki forces are marching on Finland. They are now threatening the Finnish seaport of Viborg, seventy-five miles northwest of Petrograd.

TORONTO WILL HONOR HON. ROBERT ROGERS

Toronto, Nov. 14.—A dinner is to be given to Hon. Robert Rogers here on November 20 as a tribute for what he accomplished in connection with harbor improvements at this city. It will also likely be a rally of the Conservative party leaders here.

The Mystery of Gout

Some Interesting Pointers From the Pen of Dr. Hamilton

"The real cause of gout is due to the excessive use of certain articles of food and drink, which in time leads to a disturbance of the functions of the liver. As a result, harmful products such as uric acid are thrown into the blood, causing the condition known as gout."

"Consequently it follows that, having proper diet and maintaining liver activity, a cure can be effected."

Probably no physician has achieved such success in liver disease as Dr. Hamilton.

These pills of Mandrake and Butter-nut are everywhere acknowledged to be a specific for slow, weak or sluggish liver; they give tone and vitality to this organ that enables it to perform its duties with ease and certainty.

Once the liver is corrected, Dr. Hamilton's Pills apply their peculiar merit to the kidneys and eliminating organs. This cleanses the blood and sends it back through the system, full of nourishment and strength.

Rheumatic tendencies are no longer noticed, for pure blood kills the poison that causes rheumatic aches.

Dull, aching twinges, stiff joints and difficulty of exertion become things of the past.

Of course by rheumatism such complaints as sciatica, lumbago and neuritis must be included, for after all, what are they but manifestations of rheumatic poison?

Thus it is easily seen that a world of good is accomplished by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Acting as a blood renovator and a general tonic for the system, their benefit is incalculable, 25c. per box or five boxes for $1. at all dealers, and be sure you get the genuine Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

THAT BAN.

The City Health Board is being asked to raise the ban relative to influenza prevention in respect of churches and private business interests and to substitute for it a rigid quarantine of patients and their households. This recommendation, we assume, does not apply to schools or public meetings which, respectively, would still remain closed and prohibited.

Clearly, if the embargo should be raised in the case of the public gatherings specified in the recommendation it should be raised in other cases. The question, however, is solely one of protecting the public health against a very grave menace. Has the ban, limited though its operation has been through circumstances which the authorities could not very well control, been an effective agent in combatting the influenza epidemic and would a rigid quarantine better serve the purpose? The quarantine, in our opinion, should have been enforced in any case in view of the high communicability of the disease.

This is a very serious question, for the protection of the public health is one of the most important duties of the state, if it is not, indeed, the most important duty. Suppose the recommendation submitted to the Health Officer were adopted and the epidemic assumed increased proportions, notwithstanding the quarantine restrictions, not only would the ban have to be re-imposed more firmly than ever but further drastic measures would have to be adopted.

The ban was imposed in Victoria a considerable time before it went into effect in Vancouver, and even then the Provincial Government had to intervene in the Mainland centre. Victoria has suffered much less from the epidemic than Vancouver, the percentage of cases here having been less than half of the percentage in Vancouver. Other circumstances than the enforcement of the embargo on public gatherings may be responsible for some of the difference in the relative immunity of the two places, but would it be wise to take any chances that can be avoided, even though the embargo has been disregarded in many instances? Up to a few days ago the epidemic undoubtedly was rapidly on the wane in Victoria and there was every prospect of an early removal of the restrictions upon public gatherings. Did the large gatherings in the streets in celebration of the armistice cause the marked increase in the number of cases noted yesterday and the day before?

The embargo is causing considerable dislocation of business and inconvenience and loss in other ways. But if through too hasty action now, though taken with the best intention, the period of the epidemic were prolonged, say, into next month, the economic dislocation would be much greater, paralyzing Christmas trade, while the recovery of the community from the effect of the epidemic would be delayed many weeks. And suffering and death, the greatest of all losses, lie in the scales on the other side.

Experience elsewhere on this continent—and it is useless to go elsewhere than on this continent for light and leading, for reasons that should be perfectly obvious—shows that with reasonable precautions the period of the epidemic is about six weeks. It is now six weeks since public gatherings were prohibited here and, certainly, all the indications up to three days ago pointed to the confirmation here. We believe those indications will return in a day or two; in fact they are noticeable now, and the situation should be clear and definite enough in a very short time to justify the raising of some of the restrictions.

TWO DAYS MORE.

The public has only two more days in which to subscribe for Victory Bonds. Those who do not take advantage of the rapidly-fleeting opportunity will regret their failure to do so. They will have failed to "stick it out" as long as the men overseas, for it will be many months before the Canadian army can come home. They also will have failed to contribute to the stability of Canadian industry without which the transition from war to peace would involve serious economic dislocation. They will have failed to help in the export of food and other vital necessities to our Allies, who during the next twelve months will need them as urgently as they ever have needed them before. Finally, they will have overlooked an opportunity for investment on terms such as never will be available again. Never again will it be possible to acquire 5½ per cent. Government securities by paying a small sum down and making the remainder of the payments in ten monthly instalments.

GOOD FOR THE ISLAND!

G. H. Dawson, organizer of the Victory Loan Campaign for Vancouver Island outside of Greater Victoria, is very busy nowadays awarding Honor Flags. These emblems of patriotism combined with sound business have been won by district after district and when the campaign has ended it will be found that between them they have substantially oversubscribed the million allotted to them. Duncan, always in the vanguard of patriotic and public-spirited movements of any kind, passed its quota of $180,000 two days ago. Chemainus is now a goodly distance ahead of its allotment, and to-day Ladysmith has established its claim to an Honor Flag. Nanaimo, which has been seriously crippled by the influenza epidemic, is now coming along with big strides and we shall be very much surprised if it does not subscribe its $400,000. Shawnigan and Cobble Hill won their Honor Flags last week but are not resting on their laurels by any means, for their subscriptions continue to grow. Cassidy, which won the first Honor Flag on the Island, has now oversubscribed its quota more than twice. In all, twelve out of fifteen Island districts have subscribed their allotments, and we think we can safely predict a showing of 100 per cent., or something very near it. The Island is doing splendidly in this last great financial offensive.

WHERE WILL THEY MEET.

Newspapers are speculating on the scene of the peace conference. At one time it was generally believed that The Hague would be chosen. But it is doubtful if there will be sufficient accommodation at the Netherlands peace centre for the large army of plenipotentiaries, officials, newspapermen and others who will be on the scene. Each of the principal belligerents will be represented by a staff which alone would tax the facilities of a large hotel and, it should be remembered, besides these China, Brazil, Cuba, the Central American States, Siam, etc., etc., will participate in the conference. The officials will be numbered in thousands.

The question of accommodation, not to speak of other facilities, will make it necessary for some large capital to be chosen as the scene of this gathering, the most momentous gathering in the secular history of the world. Brussels has been suggested by some and if it is impossible to have the conference in a neutral capital no more suitable place could be found than the beautiful political centre of Albert's kingdom.

But it will be a long time before that conference can be held, notwithstanding the frantic German attempts to have peace proceedings begin at once. Fully a month must elapse before the terms of the armistice can be carried out, and even this may not be sufficient, for conditions in Germany and in the German army are bound to grow more chaotic for some time. It may be necessary for the Allies to enforce the performance of the conditions, particularly in regard to the occupation of Heligoland and the control of the German navy.

KARL ABDICATES.

With the abdication of Emperor Karl the disintegration of Austria-Hungary is complete, and there is practically nothing left of what was once the dominating element of the Holy Roman Empire. German-Austria, which alone remained loyal to the Emperor, now does not want him and contemplates unity with the "German Republic." There is not, of course, any "German Republic" in actual sense, for what was once the German Empire is separating into a number of independent states which, for the time being, are calling themselves republics.

It is not improbable, however, that in time they will unite in some kind of German confederacy, and it is hard to see how they can become anything but a republic, for all their present dynasties are tainted with Prussianism; all of them were involved in precipitating the war. To have a monarch without any connection with the leaders of the German military party they would have to obtain a prince from the outside.

German-Austria probably will link fortunes with Bavaria, with which it always has been closely associated by religious and other ties.

The pendulum of the upheaval in Germany will swing a long way before it reaches the limit of reaction, as von Hindenburg and other prominent Prussian leaders who now espouse the cause of the people for the sake of their own hides will discover before long. The new order cannot begin in Germany until every vestige of the old order has been eradicated.

NATURALIZED ALIENS.

(London Daily Mail.)

How little some of the naturalized aliens can be trusted the case of Sir Joseph Jonas, who was concluded yesterday, shows. This man came to England fifty-one years ago. He was naturalized forty-two years ago. He was knighted thirteen years ago. In the year before the war he was sending to Germany information as to how many rifles a day Victoria was making—information which was of commercial and military importance. He was giving this to a German who competed with Victoria for the most favorable interpretation of his conduct—for the benefit of German trade, and this at a time, when Germany, as we know, was arming to attack us. In our opinion he ought to be denaturalized and deprived of his knighthood at once.

Urges Banks to Stay Open.
Island Chairman R. F. Taylor is strongly urging the local banks to remain open all day Saturday, to deal with belated investments which are expected in large numbers at the eleventh hour. Taylor has been in consultation with W. H. Malkin, chairman for British Columbia, suggesting that he take some similar action with banks of the Mainland. This provision, says Mr. Taylor, will result in many extra investments which might otherwise be concluded and will relieve congestion at headquarters.

Many of the larger firms of the city are holding off until the last minute, preferring to make their investments to-morrow or the next day, and many of the biggest concerns operating here have yet to be heard from. A similar experience last year, and doubtless will be repeated. In addition, Mr. Taylor has in his possession checks for $250,000, which mature on the last day of the drive, until which time, of course, they cannot be officially recorded.

SAYS OBJECTIVE
WILL BE SECURED

Success of Victory Loan is even more important than it was in war days. The fighting job is gloriously finished, the financial job is as great as ever. We can make of the transition period on which we are now entering, what we will. If we let things slide it will be dangerous. If we grasp the situation firmly we can transfer it into one of magnificent opportunity. There are tremendous possibilities for Canadian industry and development if we finance them. Domestic developments more extensive than anything hitherto contemplated are possible if we finance them. A Canadian commission is headed for Europe for the purpose of securing orders for the Canadian industries for the reconstruction of Europe. Canada has earned a large share of that business. She has earned it by the valor and the loyalty of her people. She will get it—if she finances it.

Money Greatly Needed.

"Someone might unthinkingly suggest that the Victory Loan is no longer needed to back up the men at the front. That would be a short-sighted suggestion. In a real sense, the loan is needed to back up the men at the front. Because now we are going to bring them home. And what are we going to bring them home to, are we going to bring them home to shift for themselves, or are we going to bring them to a prosperous country, humming with enterprise and industry—a country with work and opportunity for everybody.

They have been fighting to protect us. Now we have an opportunity to reward them not merely by bringing them home but by bringing them home to a land of prosperity and opportunity. Canada has found herself in this war. She has discovered not merely the gallantry of her soldiers but the brains and capacity and efficiency of her whole people. In every branch, in arms, in industry, in finance, she has had to measure herself against the world and in no case has Canada realized that she was graded so high. "Between now and Saturday night Canada has another opportunity to demonstrate to the world her efficiency and resourcefulness. A great over-subscription to the loan will be an inspiration to our people and a notice to the world that Canada is a force to be reckoned with in the days ahead.

"My message is, therefore, to everybody to keep on buying every bond you can until the loan is closed."

Edmonton, Nov. 14.—Edmonton went over the top yesterday in its Victory Loan campaign. The city's quota was $175,000. The city's subscription of $130,000 made a total of $1,238,559. This is notwithstanding the fact that the city is one of the hardest hit in Canada by the influenza epidemic.

group under Field-Marshal von Mackensen (in Roumania):
"I remain, as hitherto, the head of the supreme army command. In order to lead the troops home in order and discipline, I expect the command, staff officers, non-commissioned officers and men to continue to do their duty. This is to be made known to all the troops."

Ghent, Nov. 12.—Delayed—Conflicting rumors as to the situation in Brussels reached this city to-day. Reports are current that the German soldiers there have shot their officers and are burning and pillaging the city. Belgian advance scouts are now half way from Ghent to Brussels. Should the report of the mutiny be confirmed, a firing column will be sent to restore order in the Belgian capital.

F. W. Hohenzollern.
Basel, Nov. 14.—Reports that the former German Crown Prince is with his father, Wilhelm Hohenzollern, in Berlin, bearing date of Tuesday. The dispatch states that he is with his troops at the front.

At Maastricht.

London, Nov. 14.—Frederick Wilhelm Hohenzollern, the former German Crown Prince, has been shot, but is a prisoner of the British. The Governor of Limbourg at Maastricht, The Daily Express says it learns. He crossed the Dutch frontier accompanied by a dozen intimate military associates.

Buenos Ayres, Nov. 14.—During the celebration here yesterday in honor of the victory of the Allies, numerous revolver shots were fired while a procession was passing the office of the President, causing the death of about twenty persons were wounded and the police charged the crowd with sabres.

FARM TRAINING FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS

Meighen Outlines Scheme to Fit Former Fighters
for Work

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, Minister of the Interior, has announced the plans for the carrying out of the Land Settlement Act for Soldiers scheme, under which soldiers will gain agricultural experience and be enabled to go on the land. The statement is as follows:
"Adequate facilities are provided by the Soldiers' Settlement Board to enable men desirous of taking up land under the Soldier Settlement Act to obtain the experience and qualifications necessary. In order to utilize the demobilization period, which will extend over many months, a number of training farms will be established in Great Britain. Preliminary steps already have been taken to this end by the Board in conjunction with the Canadian Department of Militia and the Khaki University. The farms will be organized as schools for instruction in the essentials of farming under Canadian conditions. They will provide an intensive course of about three months' duration, the staff being selected from service men who formerly were connected with agricultural teaching.

"A course of work has been prepared at the request of the Board by the Committee of Agricultural Instruction, W. G. Black, for use both in Canada and Great Britain. It bears similarity to the regular agricultural college course, being designed to teach inexperienced men the everyday operations of the farm rather than the scientific principles underlying agriculture. It is proposed by its means to carry the men along from a point where they know nothing of farming to a point where they will have a sufficient working knowledge to become self-supporting virtually from the time they go upon the land.

Two Plans.
"Inexperienced men returning at once to Canada will be offered two plans upon which to qualify, the choice being optional. They may either gain experience by working with successful farmers, or they may take the course above at an agricultural college or similar institution in Canada. Similar arrangements are being made at two institutions, and it is the expectation that this course will be offered in many provinces by the beginning of the year.

"While in framing the course outlined, practical utility has been made the essential feature, it is recognized that the best school is the well managed farm, provided the farmer himself is sympathetically disposed. So much depends on this aspect of the matter that a careful selection will be made among the progressive farmers of the country who are prepared to render public-spirited service in this connection.

"It is the intention to inaugurate a fellow-up scheme, with the co-operation of provincial agricultural departments, whereby the men will be advised and instructed after they go on the land.

"Attention is called to the fact that the programme outlined relates only to those inexperienced in farming. Experienced men who satisfy the authorities that they possess a reasonable fitness for farm life and the other qualifications called for by the land without further instructions."

AMERICANS EATING
WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

Washington, Nov. 14.—The regulations requiring householders and bakers in the United States to purchase seventy per cent. of substitutes with each purchase of wheat flour were withdrawn yesterday by the Food Administration, effective immediately.

"Victory" bread this will be replaced by whole wheat bread.
An increase of sugar allowance for households and public eating places of three to four pounds a person monthly was ordered yesterday by the Food Administration.

NEWSPRINT TRIBUNAL
AT WORK AT OTTAWA

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—The newprint tribunal was formally constituted here yesterday and the decks were cleared for hearing of the appeals of both the manufacturers and newspaper publishers against the price of 46¢ a ton for newsprint fixed by the Paper Control Board of Quebec. The tribunal, composed of the Ontario Supreme Court, and White, of the New Brunswick Supreme Court, met in the board room of the Railway Commission at noon yesterday.

GERMAN-AUSTRIANS
PLAN AN ELECTION

Basel, Nov. 13.—Via London, Nov. 14. All the Imperial power in German-Austria has passed to the State Council, which will retain that power until a Constituent Assembly has definitely established a constitution, declares a resolution adopted by the State Council at Vienna. The Assembly will be elected in January.

The resolution describes German-Austria as a democratic republic and an integral part of the German republic.
Influenza at Saskatoon.
Saskatoon, Nov. 14.—Influenza certainly is dying out in this city. Twenty-five new cases were reported yesterday, as against thirty-five on Tuesday and 150 on Sunday, November 2. Several deaths, however, occurred yesterday. Owing to the improved situation the emergency bureau is to be closed.

At a meeting of the City Council a resolution was passed favoring a Dominion Board of Health in order to prevent such an outbreak coming at a future time. The resolution is being forwarded to Sir Robert Borden.

WILSON STATUE IN LONDON.

London, Nov. 13.—The newly-formed Anglo-American Society, of which the Duke of Connaught is president, has decided to ask President Wilson to honor the society by allowing it to erect his statue in London simultaneously with the statue of Washington and Lincoln which already have been offered by the United States.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, November 14, 1893.

The wires on Menzies Street are hanging down, and the Premier would like to see them replaced. If the truck and ladder be called out in that neighborhood, the driver will stand a very good chance of being beheaded without the trouble of standing trial, in which case the widow may have a damage suit against someone.

Influenza is again making its appearance in the north. The Danube brought word that the disagreeable disease is attacking the whites and Indians along the Naas River.

The work of repairing the collier San Mateo began at noon yesterday and is going ahead rapidly.

GOOD FOR SALT SPRING.

To the Editor.—I should like to draw your attention to an error appearing in a news item in your last week's issue. This had reference to a canvasser made by John Mowat amongst the Gulf Islands, and represented that Mr. Mowat had sold $15,000 of Victory Bonds on Salt-Spring Island.

This is entirely incorrect as the gentleman was not on Salt-Spring Island, nor was he in any way connected with our campaign here. The writer has had a capable staff of canvassers, and to date we have sold nearly $20,000 worth of bonds without any outside assistance.

Trusting that you will give this due prominence, I am

Very truly yours,
W. M. MOUAT.

Ganges, B. C., Nov. 13, 1918.

THE ALBERNI SEAT.

To the Editor.—Through your paper may I draw the attention of the Liberal party to the set of circumstances that have surrounded the representation of the Alberni constituency during the last four years?

In 1914 we were represented by the Conservative member, who enlisted for overseas service, leaving us unprotected until the general election. We admired him for his patriotism but wished he had resigned his seat first.

A Liberal candidate was next returned, but he, having been elected in two constituencies, relinquished the Alberni division at once. Then came the bye-election in which the honors went to the Conservative, and now the vacancy has occurred again through death. The constituency has suffered from absenteeism and death.

It is of importance, if the Liberal party really wishes to be represented, to place a candidate in the field that will make a living issue of the contest. Among the party there must be some one known who will be diligent in service, and who will secure for us, by reason of his diligence, a continuity of representation and purpose. Some of our best men get passed over because some one possessing nothing but a blatant pushfulness will overshadow them. We want a man with imagination and vision who will sacrifice himself for the constituency and not the constituency to himself.

I am claiming for the present administration two reasons for them being directly represented for Alberni District. Firstly, they doubled our taxes and in doing so gave evidence of possessing courage. There are many forms of spurious courage. One is when a man does the seeming courageous thing through not realizing the danger. There was nothing spurious in the Government's action, for they must have known when they applied the "super-tax" that they would antagonize every voter who was petty or mean and that they would lose some support from that large silent class to whom the war had brought direct loss and are craving for any kind of relief. Yet, knowing this, they applied the tax, showing that "Safety First" was not their motto.

Secondly, I am claiming for their support the fact that the Premier has cleaned up the railroad muddle of the Province with speed and daring, and the animus shown by the railroad magnates—and apparently by their political friends at Ottawa—is a sign that something is being done for the "common herd." When these magnates attack the Government you know some benefit is going to the people. When they praise the Government it means something has gone their way.

I would say, therefore, send us a candidate, and place him in the field early; one with political courage and fairness; one that will look after the just claims, if need be, of those who failed to support him as well as those who stood with him; one who will stand not for the sake of "Parliamentary honors"—the latter being fleeting—but for the opportunity of rendering service for the collective good.

W. H. PRATT.

Hillier, V. I. B. C., Nov. 12, 1918.

THE MEN WHO DIED.

To the Editor: Mr. Blakemore's letter on Compensation, published in Saturday's issue of the "Colonist," is deserving of the utmost consideration.

Germany owes the fullest reparation to every individual who has suffered for her crimes. "A collective claim on behalf of the nation" does not, in any sense meet the loss to the individual. We hope and trust that all possible recognition will be made of the services of the wounded and the maimed, but also of the men who have died, in the world's behalf.

In some cases a small compensation is sometimes made to relatives of dead soldiers, provided legal right to such claim can be established, but this is not enough. There is also a moral claim to support, which is often stronger than a legal one, though not recognized. Full reparation, as Mr. Blakemore truly says, can never be made.

But surely no claims are stronger than those of men who of their own free will responded to the call of duty and the love of right. Men who devoted their lives to support, who were business claims that they might offer them—"a living sacrifice."

Since the swift, brief message of their death, no more poignant moment of grief has probably been felt by their relatives than the declaration of "Peace." In the midst of rejoicing with those who rejoice comes with added sorrow the knowledge that their own loved ones will not be among those who return.

Fitting and useful memorials, we hope, will be made in memory of the fallen, but this is not sufficient. If we would keep faith with the heroic dead, we must see to it that the fullest compensation is given to those who must wait in sorrow all the years of their lives.

A BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Acorn Gun

Copyright, 1918, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
(By Howard R. Garney.)

"Well, dear me!" cried Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady house-keeper, as she saw Uncle Wiggily Longears, the bunny rabbit gentleman, hopping out of his hollow stump bungalow one morning. "Dear me! Will you never stop?"

"Stop what?" asked the bunny, as he gave his pink nose a twinkle or two to see if he had gasoline enough to jump over the mulberry bush in case he wished. "What shall I stop, Nurse Jane?"

"I was just wondering if you would ever stop going off to look for adventures," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "You start out every morning, and you do have the strangest things happen you."

"Ah, those are adventures," said Uncle Wiggily, setting his tall silk hat on one side of his head, so he'd look as if he were going to a football game. "I hope I have a nice adventure to-day, Nurse Jane, and then I'll come back and tell you all about it."

So Mr. Longears, the bunny rabbit, started off over hill and dale, until, all of a sudden, as he was walking along under a big oak tree he felt something hit him on his tall silk hat and then bounce off to the ground. It was something brown and partly round and hard.

"Ha!" cried Uncle Wiggily when he saw what it was that had hit him. "Some one is firing bullets at me! I wonder if there is a war going on here and why they are shooting at me?"

And just then a voice that seemed to come from the tree said:

"Oh, excuse me, Mr. Longears, I didn't mean to shoot you!"

"Ha! who is there?" asked the bunny. "Is it Johnnie or Billie Bushytail, one of my little squirrel friends, throwing hickory nuts at me?"

"No," was the answer, that still seemed to come from the tree, "that wasn't a hickory nut that hit you. It was one of my acorns! Hickory nuts grow there, and I dropped this acorn on you, but I didn't mean to."

"Then why did you drop it?" asked the bunny.

"I couldn't help it, Jack Frost made me," was the tree's answer. "Jack Frost has very cold fingers, you know. When he comes around, at the beginning of each winter, he pinches the acorns that grow on me, the oak tree, and my acorns fall off, just as the chestnuts and hickory nuts fall off. In fact, I'm a regular acorn gun when cold weather comes. The least wind that blows knocks down a lot of acorns," said the tree.

"It's going to blow now, I think," Uncle Wiggily, and if you don't want to be hit on the head by a lot of my acorn bullets you had better stand from under."

"I will," said the bunny, and he did, and the wind suddenly blew and down rattled a lot of the hard, round, brown, shiny things—acorn bullets—from the oak tree acorn gun, they were.

"My! This is quite an adventure," said Uncle Wiggily to himself as he watched the acorns fall. "I'm glad I stood from under. Yes, it is quite an adventure!"

But that was nothing to what happened a little later. Listen, as the telephone girl says:

Uncle Wiggily hopped on and on and on—he hopped ever so far, and all of a sudden, out from behind a lollypop bush jumped a bad old Chugalug. The Chugalug, which is something like a Pussycat, only worse, had eaten all the lollypops off the bush.

"And now I'm going to take you away to my den, and eat some of your ears!" cried the Chugalug. "Souce always goes well with lollypops."

"Please don't take any source off my ears!" begged Uncle Wiggily.

"Yes, I shall!" barked the Chugalug. So he tucked Uncle Wiggily under his claws and started off with the bunny rabbit. But the Chugalug hadn't carried Mr. Longears very far before, all of a sudden, they came to the same oak-acorn tree. And when the oak tree looking down, saw what was happening to Uncle Wiggily, the tree cried:

"Stand from under!"

"What for?" asked the Chugalug.

Uncle Wiggily didn't stop to ask. With a scramble and a scramble he got loose from the Chugalug's claws and stood from under, but the Chugalug didn't. And then the tree gave itself a shake, and down rattled a lot of acorn bullets, hard as rocks. Bang! Smash! Down they came on the nose of the Chugalug.

"Oh, I'm shot! I'm shot!" he cried, and away he ran, never thinking at all of catching Uncle Wiggily again. So the oak tree acorn gun bullets saved the bunny, you see, and if the sunshine doesn't tickle the rain drops, so it splashes in the eye of the pollywog. I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the chestnut sword.

IN WOMAN'S DOMAIN

Social Personal

Mrs. A. T. Parkin, accompanied by her little son Gordon, has returned to her home in Prince Rupert after spending the past few months in Victoria.

For the first time in its history Colorado Springs has a woman in charge of the chemical laboratory of the health department. She is Miss J. Beth Mayhew. The position had been held for the seven years prior to the appointment of Miss Mayhew by J. E. Elder, who resigned to enlist in the sanitary corps of the United States army.

Mrs. Chadwick, wife of the Rev. P. A. P. Chadwick, recently received the sad news of the death of her only remaining brother, Capt. Brian Henderson, who succumbed in London to wounds received in action recently. She has thus lost both of her brothers during the present war. Mrs. Chadwick left for the East immediately on receipt of the news to visit her parents in Windsor, Ont., accompanied by her little daughter and Miss Chadwick.

Esquimalt Military Convalescent Hospital was the scene of a merry affair last evening when the matron and nursing staff held a whist drive for the patients. Over fifty players entered the game, and play commenced at 7.30, and was in progress until 11 o'clock. Prizes were awarded as follows: 1st prize, ladies, Miss Youdall, photo frame; lady's booty prize, Miss Boulton; gold ring; 1st gentleman's prize, Sgt. Sandford, silver pencil; booty prize, gentlemen, Capt. Dowell, gold ring. During the evening light refreshments were served, while a short musical programme was in charge of Lieut. Manning. Altogether the evening was most enjoyable, the patients being loud in praise of the excellent entertainment given by their hostesses.

NOW OUT OF DANGER

NURSING SISTER J. MIDDLETON
daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Middleton, McClure Street, who was reported dangerously ill in recent casualty lists, is now happily out of danger, according to news received by her parents this morning. Her many friends in the city will join in the hope for her speedy recovery.

PARENTS ARE GIVEN SOME CONSIDERATION

Board Bases Fixing of School Hours on Convenience at Home

The hours of tuition in the City Schools all the year around will hereafter be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., with the usual intermissions, according to a decision reached by the Board of School Trustees at last night's meeting.

A good deal of discussion has taken place recently regarding school hours, and everybody concerned, and some not concerned, have been free with suggestions as to what should be done in the matter.

Members of the Board last night were strong in the conviction that it was time the parents were given some consideration. Trustee Mrs. Jenkins heartily agreed with the suggestion of Trustee R. W. Perry that the school hours should be those above stated all the year around.

"In the summer the children have the benefit of the long hours and can spend more of the afternoon in the bright sunshine," said Mrs. Jenkins. "In addition to that we must remember that people have a set time for going to business all the year around, and changing the hours of their children going to school is hardly fair to them."

Municipal Inspector Paul agreed with these sentiments and also stated that the necessity for changing the time table twice a year should be done away with.

"They can do more in an hour's study in the morning than they can during hours later in the day," commented Trustee Perry.

The Board was unanimous in its determination to adhere to the same hours throughout the year.

A LUCKY DISCOVERY.

Two women of the parvenu class were discussing the future of their respective sons, when one of them said:

"Do you know, I believe that a boy's development depends largely upon his environment?"

"I know it," replied the other, as she carelessly toyed with her jewel box. "There was my cousin William's boy—he never knew what it was to have a well day till the doctor found out that the trouble was with his environment and cut it out."—Harper's.

MAGNIFICENT PELTS GIVEN TO RED CROSS

Capt. J. R. Hadley, of Polar Bear, Gives 23 Fine Skins to Society

Since the commencement of activities by the Canadian Red Cross Society the local branch has been favored with many gifts of considerable value, but few perhaps have been more magnificent than a donation just received from Capt. J. R. Hadley, a member of the Stefansson Polar Expedition, who is now in Victoria. Capt. Hadley has given to the local branch twenty-three particularly handsome pelts, including three Polar bear skins and twenty snow white fox skins.

The largest bear skin measures nine and a half feet in length and would make a handsome rug or furnishing for a parlor, while the other two which are somewhat smaller would be ideal for the same purpose. The fox skins are wonderfully soft and each would make a beautiful addition to the wardrobe of any woman. In addition to the monetary value of the pelts they have an historic association which alone makes their possession much to be desired. At present the skins are in "green" condition, and the Red Cross officials will hand them over to a taxidermist for tanning.

The local executive have not yet definitely decided upon the method of their disposition, but it is likely that they will be raffled, this being considered the most remunerative form of disposing of them.

SAANICH NURSES DO MAGNIFICENT WORK IN PRESENT EPIDEMIC

Two Members of Victorian Order III; Soup Kitchens' Invaluable Assistance

Should the history of the "flu" epidemic as it affected the south of Vancouver Island ever come to be written, a prominent place would be given to the splendid work undertaken by the women who comprise the Saanich branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses. Handicapped even in the ordinary course of events by the smallness of the personnel, the vast increase in the number of sick cases since the outbreak of the scourge in the district placed them on a plane with the heroines of the country.

Overworked Nurses.

Some few weeks ago Miss Heading-ton, the head nurse, resigned that position and left for Vancouver, where she hoped to enjoy a rest after a long spell of duty. Hearing of the outbreak of the epidemic in the district in which she had done such splendid work and, incidentally, made so many friends, she immediately gave up all thoughts of rest and hurried back to Victoria, offering her services again to the Order. Needless to state, her offer was accepted with gratitude and she immediately commenced duty.

With Miss Forshaw and Miss Norcross, she has borne practically the brunt of the caring for the severe cases, and both nurses worked night and day, on several occasions tending to thirty-two cases during the day. In such a scattered district as Saanich their services were in constant demand and their hours of rest were no measure and at best so broken that now both Miss Headington and Miss Forshaw are down with the disease.

Happily neither case is of the worst type, and they are reported to be recovering.

Another woman who has given yeoman service during the epidemic is Miss Abbott, who undertook the driving of the V. O. N. car. In order that the nurses should lose not the least time in getting from case to case, Miss Abbott was in readiness with the car practically day and night, and she too, has fallen a victim to the disease—so which overwork and the fatigue resultant upon her unceasing labors made her a ready victim. Happily she, too, is reported on the mend.

WAR AND THE SUGAR BOWL

No. 4

Canadian restaurants are not permitted to give their customers all the sugar they ask for. Manufacturers and confectioners have also been put upon strict sugar rations, and could not well get below their present minimum. Why should people at home expect to get it? When all the people in private homes get down to the level of restaurants and sugar manufacturers, the shortage will be fully met. "What is sauce for the goose, is sauce for the gander." 2 pounds a month—the limit—means 6 spoonfuls a day.

At each of these kitchens huge pots have been kept boiling both day and night, preparing delicious and nourishing broths, in the preparation of which the members of the Tillamook Women's Institutes have worked indefatigably. From the former place alone two gallons of soup have been sent out daily, the procedure being that the nurses have called for the huge cans, and on their rounds have left the welcome food at the homes where it was most needed. The amount of soup made has been so ample that this week the surplus has been sent on several occasions to the Isolation Home at the Jubilee Hospital for the benefit of the sufferers there.

Grateful thanks are also expressed to the many donors of fresh fruit, new-laid eggs and custards, which have been greatly appreciated by the patients.

PROSPECTORS URGED TO EXAMINE SECTION

Report on Geology of Pacific Great Eastern Railway Territory Just Issued

"The significance of the discovery that large bands of sedimentary and other stratified rocks lie in what was formerly supposed to be nothing but a mass of gneiss in the Coast mountains is far-reaching," says Charles Cammell, head of the Geological Survey in British Columbia, in his report on reconnaissance work along the line of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway between Squamish and Lillooet. Mr. Cammell's first statement on the subject was made to The Times some months ago. Now his report in the departmental publication to hand yesterday goes into the scientific phases of the situation. He proceeds: "It is only fair to assume that other sections through these mountains northward to the Yukon boundary will reveal the same conditions to a greater or less extent. These conditions are most favorable for the occurrence of metallic deposits of copper, lead, zinc, gold and silver, and the whole interior of the Coast mountains of British Columbia, therefore, becomes an excellent field for prospecting, and not only the eastern and western borders as was formerly believed to be the case. Fortunately the magnificent system of deep folds that cut deeply into the heart of the ranges make it possible to prospect for these bands of stratified rocks and to easily develop any ore deposits that may be found in them. Prospecting, therefore, is urged to pay more attention to the possibilities of the Coast mountains than they formerly did."

Mr. Cammell contributes another article in the Summary Report Part B, on mineral deposits of a non-metallic character along this line of railway. He speaks of the magnificent scenery along the line of railway through the Coast mountains as being particularly wild and impressive, and from the point of view of the tourist will stand comparison with many of the other widely advertised railway routes in the mountains of the West.

This report deals exclusively with the work in British Columbia and the Yukon by members of the Geological Survey branch during 1917.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS

Last Sad Rites Over Local Victims of Sophia Wreck.

With the arrival of S.S. Princess Alice with the remains of those who perished in the Sophia disaster the sad task of arranging for the burial of the dead goes on. Announcement is made of the funerals of the following: Henry John Higgins, aged sixteen years, will be laid to rest in Ross Bay Cemetery on Saturday, the cortege leaving the Sands Funeral Chapel at 11 o'clock. The funeral of George Alan Dallas will take place at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from the Sands Funeral Chapel, proceeding to Ross Bay Cemetery.

The late George Tribe was born in England fifty-seven years ago and had been a resident of Victoria for the past thirty-five years. He will be well remembered as a prominent worker for the cause of Belgian relief. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rhoda Frances Tribe, residing at 1507 Chambers Street, three daughters, Mrs. Ralph Westover, Mrs. George Ford and Mrs. E. H. Ritchie, and one son, Pte. James Leo Tribe, an active soldier for the past four years with the Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry. The funeral will take place from the family residence, 3507 Chambers Street, Friday, November 15, at 9:30 a.m., and from St. Andrew's R.C. Cathedral at 10 a.m. funeral arrangements being in the hands of the B.C. Funeral Co.

The remains of the late Frank Gosse, second officer of the ill-fated vessel, will be laid to rest on Thursday, funeral service being conducted at the B.C. Funeral Chapel at 2 p.m. by the Rev. A. deB. Owen. The remains of the late A. E. Brooke Wilkinson, another victim of the Sophia wreck, were forwarded by the Sands Funeral Co. yesterday afternoon to Cobble Hill for interment.

REJUVENATION OF RURAL BRITAIN

Remarkable Increase in Acreage Under Cereals in England and Wales

During the publication of the series "Know Your Ally" last month in The Times reference was made to the wonderful increase in agricultural production in Great Britain.

The situation is set out in "cold figures" in the Monthly Bulletin of Agricultural Statistics issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics to hand from Ottawa yesterday. It is astonishing to British Columbians who know pre-war conditions in the agricultural districts of England and Wales. The report says:

"The total arable area in England and Wales this year is 12,358,730 acres, representing an increase of 1,152,820 acres over the arable area of 1917. This is the largest area returned for the past twenty years. The area under permanent grass is 14,583,900 acres, a decrease of 1,246,470 acres on the year. The total area under crops and grass thus amounts to 26,942,630 acres, as compared with 27,081,450 acres in 1917. The greater part of the grass land ploughed up has been placed under wheat and oats. The increase in the area under wheat is 528,260 acres and the total now under this crop amounts to 2,556,710 acres, which is the largest since 1884. Oats this year cover 2,778,980 acres, the largest on record, and 520,070 acres more than last year. The other grain and pulse crops also show increases: barley by 42,000 acres, rye by 45,000 acres, beans by 40,000 acres and peas by 19,000 acres. To these cereal areas there have to be added 141,550 acres under mixed grains now for the first time separately distinguished, the returns of such crops having previously been divided between the various grain crops, according to the kinds grown. The total area under grain and pulse (wheat, barley, oats, rye, beans, peas and mixed grains) this year thus amounts to 7,481,000 acres, as compared with 6,025,000 acres in 1917, an increase of 1,456,000 acres, and the largest area under grain since 1873.

Potatoes have been increased by 125,850 acres, and the total area (633,340 acres) is much the largest on record. Most other crops—naturally show a decline, especially turnips and swedes, which are reduced by six per cent. and are the lowest on record; but the mangold area is slightly greater, and flax this year covers 18,409 acres—more than seven times the area of last year and the largest but two (in 1865 and 1879) for the past fifty years. The area under clovers, sainfoin and rotation grasses has been reduced by 400,000 acres and the total (12,095,000 acres) is the smallest on record. Of this 1,446,500 acres were reserved for hay; this also being the smallest ever returned, and representing a decline of 255,000 acres on the year. Of the permanent grass 4,300,000 acres (nearly half a million less than last year) were reserved for hay. The total hay area thus amounts to not quite 5,750,000 acres, or 720,000 less than in 1917, and the smallest since 1885.

Horses, on agricultural holdings are practically unchanged, being just 2,000 more than last year. There is an increase of over three per cent. in the number used for agricultural purposes, but a decline in the younger unbroken classes. The total of cows and heifers, in milk or in calf, viz., 2,574,000, is 112,000 more than last year and the largest on record, being nearly 100,000 more than the previous highest (1914). The increase occurs in all categories of the dairy herd, but chiefly among the cows in calf but not in milk. Beef cattle, however, show a decline.

MORE COHESION AND LESS DUPLICATION IS BOARD'S SCHEME

Farmers' Institute Advisory Body Again Sharply Criticizes Department

At the resumed session of the British Columbia Farmers' Institutes Advisory Board yesterday afternoon discussion was continued on the subject of the Provincial Department of Agriculture. After a somewhat scathing criticism, dealing more particularly with the purely clerical phase of the question, as referred to in these columns yesterday, the Board spent the greater part of the afternoon session in an endeavor to arrive at a basis of suggestion to the Minister with a view to convincing him that British Columbia is suffering from overloaded organization.

Too Many Cooks.

It was claimed by a number of the delegates that Governmental agricultural activities in the province lose a good deal of effect by reason of the fact that energy is directed along too many channels. Citing the various branches undertaken by the Dominion, the Province, the University of British Columbia, Experimental Farms and the Agricultural Education Department, the Board has arrived at the unanimous view that less duplication, and a sensible plan of co-operation of effort would not only tend to more practical but would entail less expense.

And on the subject of cost the Board takes the view that economies effected in respect of the more or less unfruitful branches might very well be let loose on the solution of the more apparent problems which confront the farmer.

May Suggest Alteration.

Individual members of the Board have obtained reports and statistics from various parts of Canada and the United States dealing with Agricultural education and by comparison it was suggested at yesterday afternoon's session that the equivalent Provincial Department scarcely warrants the expense in connection with its administration and conduct.

A tale of two Trade Marks

For over 59 years Turnbells have been making good knitted underwear in Canada—and underwear exclusively—They came from the Old Country with the knowledge of how to make good underwear bred in them—They brought out expert workers from the Old Country from time to time as their business grew—thus have always kept their products up to the highest standard, being made with that thoroughness and care for which the Old Country workers are famous.

The reason for this tremendous growth and popularity can be summed up in one word "Quality" first and all the time—

You cannot get away from the fact that Canadians appreciate "Quality" more than anything else—

It is claimed by the Board that the reason a number of resignations have been handed in of late is directly traceable to the scale of wages paid, while the alleged fact that there have been no new appointments during the last two years as a set-off against ten resignations, is argument used by the delegates in support of the charge of lowered efficiency and out-of-date methods.

OVERDOING A COMPLIMENT.

Washington Times—Lady Randolph Churchill's marriage (her third) recalls an amusing story when she was just plain Miss Jennie Jerome, of New York.

Like her father, she was a keen politician, and on one occasion she delivered a rousing speech in favor of General Grant, then standing for the Presidency for the second time.

When she had finished speaking, some enthusiast in the audience shouted:

"Miss Jerome forever!"

"She stepped forward,"

"Sir, I thank you," she said, "but I do not wish to be Miss Jerome forever."

TEACHERS' SALARIES CONSIDERED BY BOARD

New Scale Will Be Drawn Up for Saanich Teachers; Other Matters Discussed

The question of teachers' salaries was discussed by the Saanich School Board at its meeting last night. It was pointed out to the Board that under the present system, the salaries paid to the various teachers depend upon the position occupied, and not, in many cases, upon the competency of the teacher. In order to alter these conditions, Secretary H. S. Cowper was instructed to draw up a scale of salaries, which would provide for an automatic increase on a basis of competency.

Sunlight does it

ing with regard to the appointment of medical health officers when the appointment of Dr. J. R. Vye as medical health officer to the Saanich schools in succession to Dr. C. D. Holmes was made. Dr. Vye had already been appointed by the council as District Health Officer.

Some of the trustees seemed to think that good results would be achieved if an officer were appointed at a nominal salary and paid for the visits actually made. It is possible that the next board may suggest to the Provincial Government that a change be made with regard to the appointment of health officers, and their salaries. Ernie Watson summed up the situation by stating that the salary for the position of health officer was paid by the School Board which, however, was not consulted as to his appointment. It was pointed out that the appointment was made by the Council urged on by the pressure of the influenza epidemic, and that should the Board refuse to ratify the appointment there was a likelihood that Dr. Vye would resign. The appointment was then confirmed to take effect from November 1.

Fighting "Flu."

The Board desires that those members of the teaching staff who are able should volunteer as nurses to fight the present epidemic, and points to the fact that already several of the teachers have joined in this work of mercy. The preliminary report of the finances of the Saanich School District afforded general satisfaction among the trustees who were informed that in spite of the financing of the new Cloverdale School, the Board will be able to conclude the year with a narrow balance in hand.

The Board refused to consider a letter from City Comptroller Raymur regarding the increase which the city proposes to make in the fees which Saanich must pay for pupils from the municipality who attend the Victoria High School. The new fee which the city proposes to levy is based on the actual cost per pupil during the past year and is some $9.37 more than has been paid for several years past. The Board considers that the letter should come from the School Board of the city and should be addressed to the Saanich Trustees under an amendment to the Act this year.

The Board decided to discard the text books on music now in use in the schools, and to obtain new books as soon as possible.

AVOIDED CANVASSER, BUT HER HEART AND HUSBAND WERE IN WAR

Salesman Was Foiled by the Strategy of Little Girl

Perhaps the cleverest way of avoiding a Victory Bond salesman was discovered yesterday by J. Moss, one of the local canvassers. This was the first time he had ever come across anyone who had attempted to dodge him, and the experience proved rather a surprise for several reasons.

Having knocked at the door of a house in the north end of the city yesterday, Mr. Moss was answered by a little girl of about five years of age, who enquired politely what the salesman desired.

"May I speak to your mother?" asked the salesman.

The little girl retired and returned a moment later to ask just what the visitor wanted. He repeated his request for a few moments of her mother's time.

"My mother says, what do you want?" said the little girl shyly.

"Tell her, please, that I would like to speak to her for about two minutes. I won't be longer."

The little hostess went back into the house, but soon appeared for the third time with "Please what do you want, mister?"

Perceiving that an interview was out of the question, Mr. Moss told the little girl that he had come to sell Victory Bonds. She scampered off again to her mother. After about five minutes, during which the canvasser heard nothing more of the child, the latter returned, and presented him with a heart-shaped card, such is worn by the women of Vancouver, and on which was printed: "Our hearts are in the war."

SYSTEM OF REPORTING DISEASE CONFUSING

Hard to Follow Progress of Influenza Situation; Precautions Taken

One doctor reported ten cases of Spanish influenza to the Medical Health Office up to noon to-day, constituting the total reported up to that time. Four doctors reported a total of forty-seven cases for the whole of yesterday.

Incidentally a sheet of reports were received from one medical man this morning which were dated November 10, but as they are four days old they cannot be set down in to-day's total. It is suggested that if the reports were turned in promptly it would aid the authorities in keeping proper records of the cases.

It has also been discovered on checking up the addresses given that some of the cases reported and credited to the city are outside of the city boundaries. As a further precaution against the spread of the malady the health authorities have adopted the scheme of placarding all the houses where cases are reported. In carrying out this work the officials have learned of a considerable number of cases that have not been reported at all. Some people have had the disease, but have kept it quiet.

Hereafter a pink card will appear on the houses where there are sufferers within, to warn visitors of the risk they are taking by entering. Strong influences have been at work in certain quarters for some days past to have the ban lifted, but Dr. Price states that he would be very much opposed to such a move, as it is quite possible by waiting a little longer that all danger of a further spreading of the disease may be obviated.

It is stated that in an epidemic of this nature the first patients suffer the most, but that gradually the germ plays itself out and the disease then assumes a milder form and gradually dies out altogether, and this explanation is given for the fact that those at present suffering from the malady have only mild attacks.

So far, over two thousand local cases have been reported since the epidemic started six weeks ago.

ADVISORY BOARD IS PLANNING TO WIDEN PRACTICAL WORKING

District Bodies to Be Formed
With Choice of Representation

Lacking boat service from Vancouver to this port last night, the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, was unable to meet the Advisory Board of the British Columbia Farmers' Institutes at the Parliament Buildings this morning. As the Minister did not return the visiting delegates proceeded to other items on a somewhat lengthy list.

At the Board's request for additional elasticity to be let into the fishery regulations governing inland waters, J. B. Babcock, Assistant Commissioner of Fisheries for British Columbia, addressed the gathering in the happy position of being able to inform them that the object of their quest had already been arranged between the Provincial Department and the Federal Ministry of Marine and Fisheries.

For the major part of this morning's discussion the delegates concerned themselves with a reconstruction of the working powers of the Board with a view to enlarging the scope of its usefulness. Although only partially framed, the tentative programme provides for an inner organization in each of the nine districts represented by the nine delegates constituting the Advisory Board; it being the intention in each case to establish a district organization to which powers will be given to select its district representative, the nine so chosen to perform the functions of the Advisory Board for the whole Province.

In the event of the Minister of Agriculture returning to his office in the Parliament Buildings this afternoon the Board will wait upon him to discuss a number of matters already referred to in these columns, prominent among which will be the subject of reorganizing the Department of Agriculture.

TAXATION IN U. S.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Uncertainty of future Government expenditures and of policies for curtailment of war production makes it advisable, in the opinion of Treasury officials, that the taxes under the pending revenue bill be not reduced materially below the $6,250,000,000 carried by the measure as drafted in the Senate.

Canada's "Scrap of Paper"

Good as Guinea Gold

IN Canada, as in all right-thinking nations, good faith is the foundation of all our business dealings. Without a sound basis of credit our whole financial structure would crumble and decay.

Credit is the belief of the creditor in the borrower's intention and ability to pay.

You do not hesitate to exchange four silver quarters for a Dollar Bill, because you know that Dollar is as good as Guinea Gold. Yet a Dollar Bill is only a "a scrap of paper" bearing Canada's statement that it will pay one hundred cents for it.

You have read that statement so often that you have come to accept it without question.

And Canada has always made good its promises concerning every "scrap of paper" it has ever put on the market.

Canada is now offering to investors Dominion of Canada Bonds, bearing interest at 5½ per cent. per annum. The interest is payable half yearly, and the Bonds are issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, making a most attractive and profitable investment.

It is Canada's desire that Bonds of the Victory Loan, 1918, be distributed as widely as possible among private individuals.

The last Victory Loan, which was largely over-subscribed, had more than 800,000 subscribers, or 1 in 9, of the entire population of Canada.

Every available dollar of private capital in Canada is urgently needed to surpass that record. Buy Victory Bonds—they are good as Guinea Gold.

From the standpoint of Patriotism your duty is clear. But, apart from any consideration of duty and patriotism, Canada's Victory Bonds represent the safest, surest and best investment in the world to-day.

Bank Clearings.—The bank clearings for the week ending to-day total $1,692,891 as compared with $1,758,878 in the corresponding week of 1917.

Don't Need Fire Escapes.—The Board of School Trustees decided that they didn't require any fire escapes when, at the meeting last night a communication was read from the Vulcan Iron Works, of Winnipeg, in which a desire was expressed that the Board should try some of the splendid equipment which they produced at the Prairie capital.

Car Missing.—T. P. McConnell reports the loss of his Ford car, No. 14434. It is reported to have been stolen from the corner of Broad Street and Fort Street last evening, between 8 and 9:30 o'clock. A reward is offered in another column for information leading to its recovery.

She Got It at Home.—At the meeting of the Board of School Trustees last night it was pointed out by the delegation from the school teachers seeking a readjustment of some of the salaries that one of the Domestic Science teachers was entitled to one year's increment under the schedule, which she had not been given. It developed that she had taught here for one year, ceased teaching for some years and then rejoined the staff. "Perhaps she got more information at home when she had to go to mother," remarked Trustee R. W. Perry. "Here, here," said Mrs. Jenkins. "Yes, I mean it, every word." Mr. Perry remarked emphatically when this little episode was greeted with laughter.

How You Can Best Show Your

APPRECIATION

Those who have suffered during the now waning epidemic can best understand the untiring devotion displayed by the many kind souls who nursed them through their illness. Money alone can never fully pay for this service—for the many weary hours of tender ministrations and watchfulness. There is one way, however, in which appreciation can be shown without any suggestion of offence—send her a box of Stevenson's

SPACE THE COMMITTEE OVERLOOKED

Easy to Criticize.—After listening most of the evening to a delegation from the teachers asking for more money and to the reading of letters from individual teachers asking for more money, a sure spot was touched when Secretary Pope read to the School Trustees last night a letter from former Trustee Wm. Marchant advising the Board as to what they should do in regard to the salaries paid to certain teachers. "I move it be received and filed," said R. W. Perry, who remarked that it was a very easy matter for people on the outside to criticize.

Cooking Classes.—At last night's meeting of the Board of School Trustees it was decided that Third Reader pupils should not be given domestic science tuition, but that the girls should be given needlework. Mrs. Andrews stated that while these pupils were too young to benefit by cooking tuition, they could quickly adapt themselves to needlework, which was beneficial and interesting to them. Girls in the Fourth Reader, of course, will continue to be given the cooking lessons, while the boys of the same class will be given manual training.

Courtesy's Generosity.—Losses in the wreck of the S.S. Princess Sophia included Christmas packages sent from Dawson for the Yukon boys at the front. Owing to the closing of navigation it is now too late for the parcels to be replaced from Dawson, and realizing this, Courtenay, B. C. wired to Dawson offering to substitute packages in place of those lost. Dawson was delighted with the generous offer and telegraphed its grateful acceptance, so that the Yukon soldiers will receive their Christmas gifts from Courtenay.

POSTHUMOUS AWARD TO WELL-KNOWN SURVEYOR

Captain Norman Wood, of the British Tanks, Was Fine Soldier

With its professional ranks already depleted by war's heavy toll British Columbia lost one of her most promising land surveyors when Captain Norman Wood, of the 17th British Tank Battalion, gave his life in the Empire's cause a few weeks ago. The gallant captain was well-known in this city and in many sections of the Province where his professional duties took him from time to time. He is a brother of Gordon Wood, of Campbell's Drug Store, and the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Stuart Wood, of Kamloops.

Somewhat softening the grief occasioned his relatives by the cold official cable from the War Office is a letter just received by the father of the dead officer in which Lieut.-Colonel E. J. Carter, commanding the 17th Tank Battalion, records the fact that the Military Cross will be the posthumous award in recognition of the late Captain Wood's services on the field. Colonel Carter's communication will be read with interest by all who knew Captain Wood; it reads as follows: "It is with mingled feelings of regret and pride that I write you regarding the award of the Military Cross to your son, Norman, who was so unfortunately killed in action on September 2 last. The official dispatch reads: 'For services in the field, but only those who were with him realize with what splendid spirit he went into action and what a grand example he set to his comrades. "We always looked upon him as one of our best officers and his loss to the Battalion is very keenly felt, not only in his official capacity, but as a friend who was always ready to help those under him, and who was held in great esteem by his brother officers. "You will receive notification as to how the Military Cross is to be forwarded to you."

From letters received by Captain Wood's brother and written a few days before his death it was obvious that the late officer knew nothing of the reward of his fine service.

COLLISION CASE

Trial of Clark vs. B. C. E. R. is Heard in the County Court.

In the County Court this morning before Judge Lammiman and a jury, the trial of the action brought by William A. Clark against the B. C. Electric Railway Company was begun, and is continuing this afternoon.

The plaintiff states that on September 6 last he was driving his automobile along Lansdowne Road and was about to cross Richmond Avenue when defendant's street car, which it is alleged was being negligently driven by the company's driver, collided with the motor car, causing damage.

The claim is for a sum exceeding $50, and not exceeding $1,000. Spencer T. Hankey is appearing for Clark, and G. H. Barnard, K.C., for the company.

ANNOUNCE INCREASE IN PATRIOTIC FUND A FEW DAYS HENCE

British Columbia Secretary and Local Officials Working Out Details

Although not in a position to give any definite information at the moment, the British Columbia Secretary of the Canadian Patriotic Fund assured a representative of The Times this afternoon that local organizations in Victoria and Vancouver were engaged in working out the details to strike a basis for an increase in the allowance to soldiers' dependents. Action has been prescribed in this connection by the National Committee as a means of augmenting the five-dollar increase in the separation allowance in this province.

As mentioned briefly in these columns yesterday, the wire from the Minister of Militia and Defence to Dr. Tolmie stated that the National Committee had agreed to the plan and was then dealing with British Columbia in this particular connection. So far, Mr. Tolmie states it may be taken as definite that the dependent without children will not be affected by any additional payment from the Patriotic Fund. The mother with children will get in addition to the new rate of thirty dollars per month separation pay—two dollars and a half extra on the present scale of Patriotic Fund allowance.

Apart from that, however, the British Columbia Committee expects to announce substantial increases in respect of children's allowances. But by reason of the fact that many thousands of families are concerned and that conditions are extremely varying, it will not be possible for Mr. Tolmie to give the desired information until the end of the week at earliest. Nevertheless, those concerned will have the satisfaction of knowing that any increase in the proportionate and extra application of the allowance to children will be effective from November 1.

CUT THIS OUT

OLD ENGLISH REMEDY FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Sprays, inhalers and nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions. Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength). Take this home and add to it 4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmit used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

"THE VINDICTIVE"

From The New York Times.

(Written for the opening of the British exhibition at the Anderson Galleries, November 5, which includes, among many marvelous photographs of sea warfare, a superb picture of the Vindictive herself, as she returned from her victorious assault upon Zeppelins.)

How should we praise those lads of the old Vindictive,
Who looked Death straight in the eyes,
Till his gaze fell,
In those red gates of hell?

England, in her proud history, proudly enrolls them,
And the deep night in her remembering skies
With purer glory
Shall blazon their grim story.

There were no throngs to applaud that hushed adventure,
They were one to a thousand on that fierce enterprise.
The shores they sought
Were armored past all thought.

Oh, they knew fear, be assured, as the brave must know it,
With youth and its happiness bidding their last good-byes;
Till thoughts, more dear
Than life, cast out all fear.

For if, as we think, they remembered the brown-roofed homesteads,
And the scent of the hawthorn hedges when daylight dies,
Old happy places,
Young eyes and fading faces;

One dream was dearer that night than the best of their boyhood,
One hope more radiant than any their hearts could prize—
The touch of your hand,
The light of your face, England!

So time to age shall tell how they sailed through the darkness,
Where, under those high, austere, implacable stars,
Not one in ten
Might look for a dawn again.

They saw the ferryboats, Iris and Daffodil, creeping
Darkly as clouds to the shimmering mine-strewn bars,
Flash into light!
Then thunder reddening the night.

The wild white swords of the searchlights blinded and stabbed them,
The sharp black shadows fought in fantastic wars,
Black waves leapt whirling,
Red decks were washed with lightning.

But, under the twelve-inch guns of the black land batteries,
The backed bright bulk, in a glory of crackling spars,
Moved to her goal
Like an immortal soul.

That, while its raw rent flesh in a furnace is tortured,
Reigns by a law no agony ever can shake,
And shines in power
Above all shocks of the hour.

Oh, there, while the decks ran blood and the star-shells lightened,
The shattered ship that the enemy never could break
Swept through the fire
And grappled her heart's desire.

There, on a wreck that blazed with the soul of England,
The lads that died in the dark for England's sake,
Knew, as they died,
Nelson was at their side.

Nelson, and all the ghostly fleets of his island,
Fighting beside them there, and the soul of Drake!
Dreams, as we knew,
Till these lads made them true.

How should we praise you, lads of the old Vindictive,
Who looked Death straight in the eyes,
Till his gaze fell,
In those red gates of hell?

OFFICIALS PRAISE SALT SPRING ISLAND

Which Far Exceeded Its Quota, and Conducted Drive
Unaided

While the up-Island districts cope in for a full share of praise for their efforts in the Victory Loan campaign, some of the centres which are included in the Victoria district are too often forgotten in the rush. Salt Spring Island for instance has, in proportion to her population, contributed to a remarkable extent, and has boosted Victoria's total investment by the addition of over $18,000 to date.

The canvass of Salt Spring Island was managed by William Mount, who took all responsibility from the shoulders of the Victoria officials. Other islands in the Gulf had to be covered by salesmen sent out from this city, but Salt Spring carried on its drive unaided.

Some confusion seems to have occurred as to whom the credit of Salt Spring Island's splendid response is due, for John Howat, and his team of bond sellers, visited the island during a tour of the Gulf last week. The party, however, only touched at this point, and did not collect a dollar from the inhabitants. The leader of the team, in fact, was loud in his praises for the organization on the island.

During the Victory Loan drive last year Salt Spring Island invested something under $2,000, and up till noon to-day $18,000 had been subscribed in the present campaign, though the quota was set at $15,000. This was entirely due, says Chairman R. F. Taylor, to the energy of the canvass, and the unceasing efforts of William Mount in charge.

Salt Spring Island will be presented with an honor flag in recognition that it has already passed its quota by $3,000. However, Mr. Mount states that he expects to bring the total up to $20,000 by Saturday night.

Pte. Taylor Wounded.—Pte. Hugh Walker Taylor, who was formerly employed as janitor in the Parliament Buildings, was admitted on November 1 to No. 5 Casualty Clearing Station suffering from gunshot wound in the left shoulder. He joined the C. A. M. C. with which he went overseas in 1917 and transferred to the 13th Battalion, with which he was fighting when wounded. His wife and child live at 147 St. Lawrence Street, James Bay.

KISSED AS THEY FREED PRISONERS FROM THE HUN YOKE

Victoria Soldiers in Triumphant
March Through War-
Stricken Towns

The triumphant march of Canadian troops and the scenes of enthusiasm as they released the people who for four years had been under the brutal yoke of the Hun captors are graphically described by Sergeant W. J. Campbell, better known as "Spike"

SERGT. W. J. CAMPBELL

Campbell in a letter to his father, T. Campbell, of 1232 Gladstone Avenue. Sergeant Campbell who won a Military Cross for his work in the victorious drive which brought Germany to its knees writing before the armistice was signed, described the fighting towards the end of hostilities as "great sport for men and the boys" and he adds "the most important part is we are winning the war." In part his letter is as follows:

"Well, here we are again. I have just found opportunity to drop you a few lines again. It is a hard job these days finding time and place to write, because sometimes your home is in a ditch, and at others in a house, which is seldom. But to-day I am in luck, as I am in a nice little cottage, so here goes. Well, dad, I got back from Belgium to France a week ago to-day, and we are advancing all the time. We have had some terrible fighting since the beginning of this push, which started in July.

Followed Them Up.

"Since we have got past the Hindenburg line things have been quite different. Fritz has been literally running away and we are following them up pretty close. To-day we are passing through villages which the Hun occupied forty-eight hours ago, and as we marched up the streets, women, old men and children cheered, shook hands, and in some cases kissed the boys. These people have been prisoners of the Hun for three years.

Won Military Medal.

Fritz did not have time to get away from our fire. We advanced so fast. Believe me, dad, this kind of fighting is good sport for me and the boys, and the most important part is we are winning the war. While I was on leave my battalion was in action, and our sergeant-major got put out of action, and I am acting S.M. Perhaps you will be surprised to hear that while I was in London I was presented with the Military Medal, and the authorities are sending the medal home to you. In one of our big drives I went after a machine gun position which was holding the boys up. We bombed the Hun out and captured two of them."

How Many Crowns for Your Honor Flag?

Of course every city, town and district will earn its Honor Flag.

But how about the crowns?

For every twenty-five per cent. in excess of its quota, each city, town and district will be entitled to add a crown to its flag.

Can you do fifty per cent. better than your quota—that means two crowns for your Honor Flag.

But double your quota and it means four crowns.

Hang a flag in your hall, that for years to come will show that your city, town or district did better than well—

OBITUARY RECORD

The funeral of Ernest Alexander Ferguson, of 1228 Yates Street, took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Members of the Longshoremen's Union attended in a body and accompanied the remains to their last resting place. The pallbearers were George Varty, N. K. Nelson, R. White, V. Heather, J. McDowell and R. Lowe. Rev. Dr. Leslie Clay officiated.

The funeral of Joseph Bradley took place yesterday afternoon from the Sands Funeral Chapel. Members of Aerie No. 12, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and members of the Longshoremen's Union attended the ceremony. Service at the chapel was conducted by the Rev. Joseph McCoy, the Eagle burial rites being read at the graveside. The pallbearers were Brothers F. Abbott, J. Bourget and J. Williams, representing the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and J. McDowell, J. Spellman and A. Edge, of the Longshoremen's Union.

The remains of the late Orton M. Phillips, who perished in the S. S. Princess Sophia disaster are resting at the Sands Funeral Chapel, pending the receipt of burial instructions from relatives in Seattle.

The funeral of Arthur Douglas Lewis, one of the victims of the Sophia disaster, took place yesterday from 323 Sunrise Avenue to St. Michael's Cemetery, Saanich, services being conducted by the Rev. C. R. Little assisted by the Rev. C. Swanson. The pallbearers were H. P. O'Farrell, R. B. Punnett, J. H. Gray, A. Genn, Cecil Cookson and R. Genn.

Robert McCloskey, a former member of the Dominion Immigration Service, passed away at New Westminster on November 12 at the age of 46 years. The late Mr. McCloskey had been a resident of Victoria for the past twenty years, and was well-known on the waterfront by reason of his position in the Chinese immigration service, he having been a clerk in the Dominion service since October, 1911. He leaves one son, who after fourteen months service in the trenches is now with the Royal Air Force, also a brother and a sister living at Newcastle, England.

The funeral of the late Janet Carrie West took place yesterday afternoon from the B.C. Funeral Chapel, Rev. J. G. Inkster officiating. The pallbearers were: R. Peterson, W. A. Jameson, L. Gray and W. Stark.

Victoria Prairie Club.—As winter months close in once more with numerous visitors coming for change and to evade the rigorous cold of the prairies, it may be well to call attention to the fact of there being a Prairie Club in the city, its membership composed of resident and visiting Prairie people with rooms open all the year round. Last winter the organization did valuable work in providing recreations; Prairie daily newspapers and other literature were available there. Lectures and entertainments were also given gratis. The club is fittingly encouraged and supported by visitors and residents could be made much more useful and materially widen its sphere of work. In the near future a general meeting of the club will be held for purposes of reorganization, and an appeal is made for all interested to attend and assist in making the club a success. Due notice will appear in the press of such meeting. The club rooms are located at 108-109 Union Bank Building to which all visitors are cordially invited.

MAY BE RECONSTRUCTION COMMISSION IN U. S.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Reconstruction problems, varied in extent and of tremendous importance, may be worked out under the direction and on the advice of a special commission. President Wilson, it was understood to-day, was considering the appointment of a reconstruction commission.

The commission as now being considered in official circles, would lay down the broad lines under which the nation would be converted from a war to a peace basis. It would act as an advisory board. The executive functions would be in the hands of Departments and agencies now in operation.

A Business Proposition

CANADA looks to YOU for help in making this great Victory Loan a success.

Canada needs your MONEY.

Ours is a country whose individual citizens are more prosperous than those of any other country in the world.

Canada has come to YOU—her citizens—with a straight business proposition.

That proposition in a nutshell is this:

"I need Three Hundred Million Dollars to help finish up my business over in Europe. Lend me the money for a short time at 5½ per cent. interest, payable half-yearly, and I pledge the return of every cent of your loan."

Plan to take all the Bonds you can possibly pay for. The payments are as follows

10 per cent. on application	20 per cent. January 6th, 1919
20 per cent. December 6th, 1918	20 per cent. February 6th, 1919
31.16 per cent. March 6th, 1919

ACTED AS HER BOY WISHED, HOPING FOR HIS SPEEDY RETURN

Anyway, It Was Not a Sacrifice, but a Good Investment

It was a cheery voice that came over the telephone wire of the Victory Loan office the other morning. It soon appeared that its owner wished one of the canvassers to call at her home. In answer to her urgent request, a salesman soon found himself before a small, brown cottage almost hidden by a splendid maple tree. Remarking to himself that this emblematic tree of Canada had evidently had a good effect on its owner, he rang the doorbell. He was answered immediately by a woman whose welcoming smile testified that it was she who had telephoned the office a short time before. "I'm so glad you have come," she said as she greeted the visitor before he had sufficient time to make known his identity. "Oh, you are the canvasser, are you not?" she asked anxiously. The smile quickly returned at the canvasser's affirmation. She then invited him into a cosy room where the place of honor on the wall was occupied by the picture of a youth in khaki. Pen and ink had been placed in readiness, and the canvasser was soon filling out an application for Bonds.

For Him.

"The Bonds are not for myself," said the lady of the house, "but for my son at the front." glancing towards the picture. "He wrote telling me to buy them for him."

She produced a letter and began reading extracts from it to her interested listener. "It occurred to me," ran the letter, "the other day, mother, that, although I'm fighting over here, I'm not doing everything I can to help my country in her hour of need. It isn't enough just to fight for her. Now what I mean to say, mother, is this: I want you to go to the bank and draw out whatever money I have there and buy Victory Bonds with it. At one time I thought I might be so badly wounded that I couldn't get work for some time. But that seems a bit selfish now. The French people over here are giving everything they have to give, and then some. In fact, there doesn't seem to be any limit to their powers of giving. They certainly set a splendid example of all that's unselfish and self-sacrificing."

Country Needs Money.

"After being out here a fellow realizes how small a thing money is in comparison with the sacrifices they are making here. But it's money that the country needs to carry on."

Home For Christmas.

"So, little Mother, don't think it's a sacrifice on my part to give my money, because in reality it's a handy investment. My only worry is that this letter may not reach you in time. But I'll hope for the best. Invest to the limit, Mother, and perhaps I'll be home in time to have Christmas dinner with you."

"And now," said the mother, glancing up with a bright smile caused by the last sentence of her son's letter, "will you please make out an application for $500 worth of bonds. We must have the boy home for Christmas."

As the canvasser left the house he reflected that not all the sacrifices of the war were being made by the women of France. Right here in Victoria were women ready and willing to undergo any hardship for the sake of the country.

Give Their Patronage—The patronage of Sir Frank Barnard, K.C.M.G., and Baroness d'Arthan has been conferred upon the Belgian War Orphans Relief Association, of which the honorary president is the Hon. VICTORIA NORTHWEST WORLD

COLORED FIGHTER GETS DECISION IN BOUT WITH SAILOR

Strappy Nine-Round Contest
Feature of Willows' Fight Card

Rifeman McIntyre, a lithesome, splendidly built colored fighter with the Canadian Siberian Expeditionary Force, obtained the decision in a nine-round two-minute bout with Dusty Miller, of H. M. S. Lancaster, at the Willows Camp last night. It was the main event on the card, and with the result never certain, held the attention of the audience at high pitch until W. H. Davies, acting as referee, raised the arm of the Siberian representative. The sailor was giving away six pounds in weight to his taller opponent, and the fight was a contrast between the upright fighting favored by the boys on deck and the crouching attitudes and careful covering popular in the United States ring. The sailor was a speedy man and was up a lot of energy which he seems in good enough shape to spare, but the rifleman took up his position in the centre of the ring and indulged in very little display of footwork, except when the seaman's dashing tactics forced him to it. Although he made a couple of trips which seemed to upset him, Miller was as agile as a cat and saved a lot of punishment by the lightning speed he showed in getting out of the way. Following a round fought warily by both men, the sailor became the chief aggressor, but the rifleman had a guard which was almost perfect, striking and covering until he was all gloves, shoulders and elbows. McIntyre gave few openings, except when he changed his style to give the sailor some tempting opportunities to rush in, which he knew too much to take, some hard blows were exchanged in the third and fourth, and the sailor, once or twice broke through his opponent's clever guard and got in some heavy body hits which, however, did not seem to worry the colored fighter. The sailor danced round the ring as the rifleman retained his position in the centre, and only made an occasional dash in return to the intrusions of his opponent until the fifth round, when both opened out with their best. The man from the Lancaster still did most of the footwork, but the colored fighter was evidently seeking for a knockout, as the sailor showed no signs of tiring in spite of his hard work.

Soldier on the Ropes.
Seizing every opening offered, the sailor got home a number of straight hard lefts with all his weight behind, but the taller fighter successfully blocked a lot of them and followed up by dashing in and forcing his opponent to do more of the defensive work. After he had received one or two that made things look good for the Siberian representative, the sailor was forced to the corner, and with the colored fighter attempting to get home with another of his deadly uppercuts his backers could already bear the first of the count, but Miller got away

Fit-Reform
For a quarter of a century, Fit-Reform Suits and Overcoats have been the standard for business.

Their sound styles; their general excellence of quality and workmanship; appealed to the business sense of men trained to demand value.

In these days of national economy, it is a pleasure to know that the Fit-Reform standard of quality has been, and is, steadily maintained.

In time. Later the sailor forced McIntyre on to the ropes, but himself tripped into the centre of the ring. Helped with an advantage in reach the soldier got in one or two stingers downwards from the nose, but both men were comparatively fresh when the chairs were thrown in at the end of the fifth round, clean breaks and a sporting spirit continued throughout the last three rounds in which the soldier missed no opportunities. Once or twice he had the sailor to the ropes feeling for an upset, that would finish the fight, but could not hang one up with enough weight. Both men finished in good condition.

Speedy Lightweight.
The ten-round go to have been staged between Lance-Corporal Daniels (125 lbs.) and Stoker Blakely was called off on account of Daniels having strained a ligament of his foot, but Daniels gave a three-round exhibition with his sparring partner, Samuels. The lance-corporal was too good for his partner to stay the full time in every round, but gave a sample of what he can do when he is put to it. He was far too quick for Samuels to have any show at all, and several times had his opponent at his mercy.

A Plucky Youngster.
Blakely, who was to have been Daniels' opponent, fought at 135 pounds with Mick Pury at 120 pounds, also of the Lancaster. Besides giving away the weight Mick was several inches shorter, but came all the way. The stoker had no cause to show what he really could do, although the little fighter sailed in and kept him fairly busy, and traded a lot of blows. Blakely, however, continued to chew his gum when he took his chair, and gave his seconds a holiday.

Hard Hitting Heavyweights.
McCluskey at 155 pounds, giving five pounds to Fulton, put up a good fight and got a cheer at the end of the first round. The two began to mix it from the start and McCluskey landed a left on his partner's jaw which made him take notice. His more experienced opponent, however, had McCluskey to his knees before the fight ended, and got him with some swinging blows, one of which hit the shadows on his left eye. Although McCluskey got out to good shape and got home one or two well-backed straight ones around Fulton's ribs, he had received enough to make him ready to finish when the latter got the decision.

In the First Round.
A promising bout between Thompson, of the Machine Gun Company, and Hildren-Stylen, both lightweights, ended in a win for Thompson in the first round. They both shaped up good and were trading hits merrily, with Stylen getting in some hard jabs amidst ships when he accidentally landed one a little too low, which put his opponent out of action.

With a Little Training.
Lance-Corpl. Blower, 135 pounds, won in the last of three rounds with Rifeman Conover, 130 pounds. Both lads were willing but with several bad habits in style to drop before they will improve much, the rifleman in particular having a peculiar custom of switching his pose from the left foot to the right and changing his guard accordingly without any advantage in view. He was, however, quicker to get in with his deliveries than his opponent.

The Dustweights.
The most cheered of the preliminary bouts was the exhibition by the Davies dustweights, who were given a hearty reception by the soldiers.

WORLD'S CUE CHAMPION TO DEFEND HIS TITLE

Chicago, Nov. 14.—August Kieckhefer, of Chicago, the world's three-cushion billiard champion, and Robert Cannex, formerly of St. Louis, were matched yesterday to play for the championship here on November 20, 21 and 22. Cannex and Kieckhefer met in a championship match several months ago, and the Chicagoan won.

SAILORS CHALK UP ANOTHER SOCCER WIN

Boys of the Lancaster Create Big Impression With Local Fans

An added spark of excitement has been infused into the city soccer competition which resumes on Saturday by the entrance of the men of H. M. S. Lancaster, for the sailors have shown that they will be hot contenders for the trophy if they remain here until the competition is closed, and are likely to add another cup to the one they carried off by their triumph over the Fragments. The fans who have seen the sailors in action declare that they put up the finest brand of soccer seen for many a day, and the Victoria players will have to put in all they know to register any points at the expense of the men in blue.

Beat the Garrison.
The Lancaster men got more scapes yesterday in a game with the Garrison whom they are also to meet Saturday at Work Point in the league competition. The Garrison were without Mesher at centre half and Sweeney has not yet sufficiently recovered from the effects of Spanish influenza to resume his place in the centre forward position, so they were playing at a disadvantage, but they made a good fight in a game in which they lost by two goals to nothing. The rain and heavy condition of the ground militated against a very fast game, but the sailors considering the conditions, showed some good bursts of speed and combination that is going to help them a lot in their games here. They only managed to get in one goal in the first half, which was headed in by Driscoll, who incidentally was off the field for some time with an injury to his knee. Once or twice if looked as if the Garrison would equalize and they managed to resist the sailors' repeated onslaughts on their goal until the last five minutes of the game when after a move in front of goal a good clearance was returned with a long shot, and McKay heading the greasy ball put it into his own goal. The line up was as follows:

H. M. S. Lancaster—Baker, Warner and Green; Lawson, Dhill and Dixon; Wray, Gulvin, Driscoll, Nicholas and Heath.

Garrison—Stevens; Peele and Pigot; Turner, Bestard and McKay; Lloyd, Gibson, Robbins, Rough and Jones. Referee—Chief Cook Wells.

Strengthen Side.
The Lancaster men will have a strengthened side to meet when they clash with the Garrison at Work Point on Saturday. Sergt. Major Bradley announcing the Garrison line-up for the game as follows: Jelliman; Pigot and Peel; Turner, Mesher and Bescott; Lloyd, Gibson, Gale, Rough and Jones. Mesher, who was not in condition to play in yesterday's game, comes back to his old position as centre half, and Gale, who has previously proved his mettle, steps into the centre forward place.

Brotherhood Unbeaten.
Last year's city champions, the Victoria West Brotherhood, are the only team to have bagged the couple of points in every game this season but they have only appeared twice, being held up chiefly through their opponents being either quarantined or unable to field a team on account of the influenza. The Fragments have won two games, one of their victories being by default so that honors at present rest fairly evenly between the Fragments, Wests and the Navy. The League table when the competition closed was as follows:

	P.	W.	L.	D.	Pts.
Fragments	4	3	0	1	7
Vic West Brotherhood	2	2	0	4	4
Navy	3	2	1	0	4
Garrison	3	1	1	1	3
Foundation	4	1	2	1	3
H. M. B.	2	1	1	0	2
Yarrows	2	0	1	1	1
Willows	2	0	2	0	0

GOLF STILL HELPS RED CROSS FOR WAR RELIEF

Winnipeg, Nov. 14.—Winnipeg golfers are again engaged in a campaign to raise funds for the Red Cross and it is expected that every club, on the Manitoba prairies will lend assistance. "Chick" Evans, the American champion, has sent the local club a set of golf clubs which are duplicates of the clubs which won him national and western titles.

These clubs are to be put up as prizes and auctioned off at various tournaments to obtain more cash for the war relief.

TROUT FISHING WILL SOON BE AT AN END

Limit Baskets Have Been the Rule at Shawnigan and Cowichan

Fishing and shooting have been very good the past week at Shawnigan and Cowichan River. During Saturday and Sunday practically all the fishermen had limit baskets, the fish taking the fly quite readily. Stuart Robertson had a good basket of trout and several fine deer were killed on Sunday. Two returned soldiers were among the lucky ones, each bagging a fine buck. W. H. Binns and M. A. Wyld returned from Sahtlam, on the Cowichan River, after a few days spent on the salmon and report the fish are going up the river in large numbers. They took twelve, all on the fly, and also shot several fine deer and a good bag of pheasants. The birds this season are reported to be plentiful in the Cowichan district. Ducks are also beginning to arrive in large numbers, especially around the Cowichan flats, the strong weather of the past week having brought them down. Trout fishermen only have to-day and Friday left in which to follow up the sport, which has been so good this year.

BENDER MISSING.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 13.—Chief Bender, former star twirler of the Athletics, is reported missing by deer hunters returning from Emleyville Woods, about thirty miles from here. Bender accompanied a party of twenty-four men, among whom were several of this city's officials, on a hunting expedition. Early in the afternoon Bender went off by himself, and when night came he had not returned. The main party remained all night in the woods, touring the vicinity in an automobile, with lanterns, but could find no trace of Bender, who has recently been working at Hog Island and was thought to be despondent.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 14.—Walter Cruse, outfielder with the St. Louis Nationals who was drafted into the army, is recovering from a serious attack of influenza at Camp Gordon, Ga., according to word reaching here.

"FLU" HELD UP FOWLER ON WAY TO VICTORIA

Sensational Goalkeeper of Seattle Puckchasers on His Way Here

Writing to a friend in Victoria, Norman Fowler, the sensational young goal-keeper of the Seattle Metropolitan, states that he is convalescing from the effects of the "flu." At the conclusion of the 1918 hockey season, Fowler enlisted in the Royal Flying Corps and began training for the Air Service at Toronto. He failed, however, to pass the tests and immediately transferred to the Siberian Expeditionary Force with quarters at Niagara-on-the-Lake. Fowler's Battalion was ticketed for Victoria about a month ago and on the overland trip he was unfortunate enough to contract the disease that has been prevalent in all lands.

He was forced to disembark at Strathecona and there took refuge in a hospital. He writes humorously of his experiences and states that he was confined to that part of the hospital which was known as Death's Corner. The activities of the ever-obliging undertaker, he remarks, will ever remain vivid in his memory. He anticipates rejoining his battalion which is now stationed at the Willows in the very near future. His many friends and admirers will be pleased to learn of the popular young athlete's complete recovery.

VANCOUVER SOCCER MEN NOT READY TO RESUME

Vancouver, Nov. 14.—No definite date has been set for the lifting of the ban on public gatherings, but it is pretty well understood that the lid will be off before the week is finished. The City Council are evidently taking a little time to see whether any ill effects result from the throngs of Sunday and Monday nights, and are playing safe. As to Soccer games following, Secretary Jack Spence, of the Vancouver and District League, stated last night that the schedule would be resumed one week from next Saturday. The games which have been missed will be played at the end of the season, the same as any regularly postponed games. Meanwhile, when meetings are again allowed, there will have been time before Saturday of next week for the league to hold a meeting and take up business where it was interrupted.

Captain L. O. Hillier, President of the Rugby Union, said last night that a meeting of the union would be held at No. 2 Pritchard at 4 o'clock on the evening after the town is thrown open, unless this should happen on Saturday, in which event there will be a meeting on Monday night. In any event, further notice will be given. The Junior Alliance will stage their games next Saturday according to schedule. The epidemic seemed to affect them less than the senior organizations.

BOXING A MAJOR SPORT.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 14.—Boxing will be a major sport at the University of Minnesota. The board of athletic control has placed it on the same basis as football and baseball. Tournaments are planned for the winter.

KEEP ON BUYING VICTORY BONDS

Start The Winter Right—With New Rubbers.

Of course, we all want to economize—and there's no truer economy than wearing Rubbers. They protect the health and the shoes of every member of the family, especially the children. But there's no economy in wearing old Rubbers that are worn through at sole, toe or heel.

Start the winter right—with new Rubbers. Not a single pair; but a pair of Rubbers for each style of shoes—fitted to insure comfort and long wear.

A new pair of Rubbers on an old pair of shoes, makes the old shoes as serviceable as new ones—at a small part of the cost of new shoes.

There is a style and shape for every shoe—for men, women and children—in these six brands of reliable Rubbers, sold by the leading shoe stores;

"Jacques Cartier"
"Merchants"
"Maple Leaf"

"Granby"
"Dominion"

UPPER SITUATION HAS BRIGHTENED

I. Silverman Brings Good News for Dewdney Mine Development

Bringing the welcome news that a considerable amount of American capital will flow to British Columbia in the near future, Samuel I. Silverman, of New York and Seattle, arrived in the city yesterday.

Silverman was East to make local arrangements in connection with the operation of properties with which he is connected, and particularly the Indian Chief group, better known as the Dewdney Mine, at Sidney, which is the chief copper property in operation on the West Coast of the Island. He reports that his visit was quite successful in this regard and that development work proceeded on the mine.

General Copper Situation.—Discussing the matter with a Times representative last evening, Mr. Silverman stated that there is an impression of the removal of a fixed price for copper, which may be regarded as an indirect outcome of the reduction in demand for the metal for war purposes consequent on the signature of an armistice, may rather stimulate the demand and price.

There is not only the great call for copper for all industrial purposes, he said, but with the electrification of roads in the United States, the requirements of the devastated countries in Europe in reconstruction and the taking out of ore bodies in existing mines, there must be a demand for copper to open up to provide for the supply. These factors ought to aid the newer properties in the Pacific Northwest.

I found in New York a considerable interest in new prospects, for all the copper-producing companies have been driven to look up their supplies of ore in fulfilling war orders. I am looking around for fresh news of development.

Payment Completed.—Negotiations were completed today, he said, for the final payment to the Indian Chief group of claims, which as the Dewdney property, by Tidewater Copper Company to Mrs. Sydney and Mrs. Springett. The company has operated the mine for last two and a half years. The claim will be in Victoria and the company for the company in A. Scott.

This city, H. B. Price will be the general manager. Mr. Price enjoys the confidence of the stockholders of the company, and a thorough practical mining engineer of exceptional operating ability. W. W. Warren will retain his position with Mr. Price as consulting engineer.

As President of the Alaska-British Columbia Metals Company, the company which holds the shares of the Tidewater Company, I shall continue to take an active interest in the development of the mining interests of B. C. Associated in the directorate of the Alaska-British Columbia Company are following New York financiers: Mr. C. Keith, president of the United Fruit Co.; Henry L. Dudley, the American Agricultural Chemical Co.; Charles S. Cohen, of the National Chemical Company, and Henry H. Hamilton, of the International Railroads company.

Others who are associated with the company are Bernard Guggenheim, of Untermyer, J. M. Leopold & Co., and E. W. Wagner & Co. as large shareholders.

The Alaska-British Columbia Metals Company has also secured a number of other properties on Vancouver Island and intends to develop them. One particularly will become an important producing mine, it is expected, in the near future. At the Sidney property it is intended to rease the capacity of the concentrating mill to about 400 to 500 tons a day in place of treating 100 tons, and to install water power from Indian Creek to reduce operating costs.

We have encountered a body of ore to a depth of 300 feet 48 feet wide averaging 2½ per cent. copper. It will encourage development on an extensive scale.

Dr. Silverman left on the Vancouverian, but intends to return to Victoria time to time to join the next sailing of the Innes Maquinna for the West Coast.

DIG DRUG FIRM WINS AGENCY FOR FAMOUS TANLAC

D. E. Campbell to Have Exclusive Control of Sales in Victoria

WILL BE PLACED ON SALE TO-DAY

The Tanlac agency for Victoria has been awarded to D. E. Campbell and the wholesale distributing agency for British Columbia to the National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Ltd., was the brief statement made by the Tanlac representative when seen yesterday.

In awarding the exclusive control to these well-known firms, said he, "I am only carrying out our established custom of confining the sale to but one or two thoroughly responsible and centrally-located firms in each city where Tanlac is placed on sale. In this connection, I will say that no matter where you go, in the United States or Eastern Canada, you will find the Tanlac stores to be the leading and most responsible druggists in the town."

"Just such firms as these," he continued, "are always anxious and willing to co-operate in promoting the sale of Tanlac—not only because of the superior merit but because of the prominence and valuable publicity they receive from its sale as well."

"These firms have given their initial order for an entire carload of Tanlac (12,750 bottles) and a large express shipment will be delivered and ready to be placed on sale to-day."

"This is without doubt the largest order ever given in Victoria for a single medicine, but having heard through absolutely reliable sources of the remarkable and rapidly growing demand for Tanlac in other cities, the managements of these firms did not hesitate a moment in placing their orders for this amount. I confidently believe that every bottle of it will be sold and the order duplicated before the close of next month."

As a matter of fact, the sale of Tanlac throughout the country has not only been phenomenal, but unprecedented.

In the comparatively small city of Knoxville, Tennessee, the Kuhnman-Hambliss Drug Company has sold and distributed 123,100 bottles of Tanlac; Memphis, Tenn., dealers and jobbers have sold and distributed over 275,500 bottles; in Seattle, Wash., over 66,600 bottles have been sold in seven months; Denver dealers have sold 75,648 bottles in eight months; Dallas, Tex., dealers over 121,508 bottles in a year; Houston, Texas, 116,100 bottles, and Fort Worth, Tex., dealers have sold 122,204 bottles in less than a year. "A little over a year ago Tanlac was placed on sale in Canada, and in the city of Toronto, Ontario, over 114,000 bottles have already been sold. "While these figures may appear exaggerated and beyond all reason, the fact remains that they are absolutely true and correct and open to investigation. We challenge anyone, whether individual, dealer or competitor, to show where we have made the slightest discrepancy. And anyone doubting these statements is at liberty to write to any or all of our agents in these cities and they will gladly substantiate the above figures."—Adv.

BOARD HEARS ABOUT TEACHERS' SALARIES

Inaccuracies in Working Out of Schedule, Says Delegation
From Schools

A delegation representing the Victoria City School teachers, and composed of Principal H. Charlesworth, A. G. Smith and A. A. Campbell, waited on the Board of School Trustees to complain of the application of the salaries schedule passed by the Board insofar as it affected certain of the teachers.

"I can show you all kinds of inaccuracies in the working out of the schedule you have yourselves prepared," said Mr. Charlesworth in the course of a lengthy and detailed review of the discrepancies which he alleged were working a hardship on some of the teachers.

The question of long past experience was repeatedly emphasized as a good and substantial reason why certain teachers should be given special consideration, and in this connection it was shown that so and so was getting so much, while so and so was getting so much less.

In concluding his remarks, Mr. Charlesworth stated that the readjustment they asked for would mean an additional expenditure of only $1,530 for ten months, or $612 for the four months of this year.

Chairman Jay informed the deputation that careful consideration would be given the representations made. "It was quite evident that the Board was surprised and when, after the deputation had gone and Secretary Pope began to read a number of letters from individual teachers requesting special consideration of their cases in respect to salary, there remained no doubt at all on this point."

"A committee has brought in a report to this Board, which has acted upon the matter for the express purpose of putting a stop to the very thing we have been listening to here tonight," said Trustee Mrs. Andrews. "If teachers with many years' experience are going to expect more than the others we will have to increase the salaries a great deal more than we are doing now."

"These teachers come here and accept the salaries offered them, and as we have arranged a schedule we should adhere strictly to it." Other speakers agreed with Mrs. Andrews, and the teachers in question will be notified accordingly.

THE ONCE OVER.

Life is a book. Read it carefully, for you can only read it once.

"I wonder what he thinks of me?"

Another wounded soldier!

Never have I noticed so many on the streets as there seems to be to-day.

I wonder why that chap gave me such a searching look? If he thinks I am a slacker he's wrong. I'm not able to fight; but I have done my duty. Here's my honor-button on my coat to prove it.

I've bought ten Victory Bonds—put nearly all my savings into them. Not quite all—that hundred I have left must be kept to buy Christmas presents.

Christmas!
Another Christmas in the trenches for our soldiers! It must be their last in France—we must bring them home before another year rolls 'round!

I wonder, now, if I could not do just a little more to help them get back!

Let's see; I could take that hundred dollars and pay it as a deposit on four $100 bonds—then pay the other $300 in instalments.

But that would leave me nothing to buy Christmas presents.

I have it!

This year I'll give Victory Bonds as presents.

But would the wife like that? Would she like a Bond as well as the gift I was going to buy her?

Why she'd rather have a Bond, if she knew it might save one poor boy from being crippled like that lad there.

And the three children, every one of them has been at me to buy a bond.

I could pay the other $300 in instalments—by being a little more careful of my expenditures. And the wife will gladly help.

I'll do it.

I'll take that hundred dollars to buy four more bonds. I wonder why I didn't think of that way before.

Let every Canadian do some serious thinking along these lines to-day.

You have only three days left to set yourself right with the boys who fight and toil, suffer and die—for you.

To-day may be the biggest day in your life.

You've never known a day that compares with it in opportunity to serve your country, for this loan must be oversubscribed.

Canada must show both friend and foe that she is in this fight to win.

PARDONABLE ERROR.

"I feel quite nervous, Jim," said the young wife as she hurried along the little village High Street to the christening of their first-born. "Only Parson Mellor! Be there," came the encouraging answer; "I poor old vicar's ill."

With a great sense of awe and importance the young couple stood in front of the new curate, the baby comfortably slumbering in its mother's arms.

ing the occasion, the curate saw fit to launch into a gentle homily on the child's future upbringing. "Who knows?" he finished up. "This dear child may one day become a clergyman like myself, or a brave soldier, or a daring sea captain. It is even possible that one day he may become an illustrious statesman."

The little mother's eyes had gradually grown rounder and rounder. "What name did you say?" said the person.

getic reply: "Dorothy, sir!"—Tit-Bits.

THAT'S IT.

"What is the meaning of 'alter ego'?" asked the teacher of the beginners' class in Latin. "It means the 'other I,'" responded a pupil. "Give me a sentence containing the phrase."

"He winked his alter ego."—Boston Transcript.

Truant Officer.—In view of the fact that W. J. Edwards, former Truant Officer, has written the Board of School Trustees that he will resume the duties of that office as soon as he can be relieved of his military duties, the Board last night decided to notify the various applicants who have applied for the position that no appointment can be made under these circumstances. Mr. Edwards, who is at present a Sergt.-Major engaged as military instructor at North Vancouver, stated that he understood he would be permitted to have his position back when the war ended. The Board will wait another month before acting further in the matter, as it was considered that now hostilities have ceased, Mr. Edwards should be able to resume his duties by that time.

JUSTIFIED.

Doctor.—Your daughter, madame, is suffering from constitutional inertia. The Girl.—There, ma! And you've been saying I was simply lazy. Boston Transcript.

LAND REGISTRY ACT.

TAKE NOTICE that an application has been made to register GEORGE ALBERT STEVENS and ERNEST STEVENS, as the owners in Fee-simple, under a Tax Sale Deed from the Collector of the Corporation of the District of Saanich to George Albert Stevens and Ernest Stevens, bearing date the 8th day of August, A. D. 1918, pursuant to a Tax Sale held by said Collector on or about the 27th day of July, 1916, of all and singular certain parcel or tract of land and premises situated in the District of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, more particularly known and described as Lots 18, 19 and 20, of Section 58, Map 125.

You and those claiming through or under you, and all persons claiming any interest in the said land by descent, devise or otherwise, are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within thirty days of the service of this notice upon you. Otherwise you and each of you will be forever estopped and debarred from setting up in claim to or in respect of the said land, and I shall register the said George Albert Stevens and Ernest Stevens as owners in fee.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 26th day of August, A. D. 1918.

J. C. GWYNN, Registrar-General of Titles.

To Frank B. McArthur, Registered and Assessed Owner.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

DIAMOND DRILLING.

Sealed tenders superceded "Tenders for Diamond Drilling" will be received by the Honorable the Minister of Mines up to 12 o'clock noon of the eighteenth day of November, 1918, for 10,000 lineal feet, more or less, of diamond drilling.

Specifications, contract and forms of tenders may be seen on and after the fifth day of November, 1918, at the office of the Deputy Minister of Mines, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B. C.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a cash cheque for the amount of the bank of Canada made payable to the Honorable the Minister of Mines for a fifth of the estimated cost of the work, which shall be forfeited if the party tendering declines to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or if he fails to comply with the conditions of the contract.

The cheques of unsuccessful tenders will be returned to them upon the execution of the contract.

Tenders will not be considered unless made out on forms supplied, signed with the actual signature of the tenderer, and enclosed in a sealed envelope.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

W. M. SLOAN, Minister of Mines.

Department of Mines, Victoria, B. C., Nov. 5, 1918.

MORTGAGE SALE

Under and in virtue of the powers contained in a certain Indenture of Mortgage, which will be produced to the successful tenderer, tenders will be received up to and including Tuesday, the 26th day of November, 1918, for the purchase of the following described property in the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, namely, the south fifteen feet of Lot Thirty-six and the north half of Lot Thirty-two, according to a map or plan deposited in the Land Registry Office at the City of Victoria aforesaid, and numbered 14, otherwise known as 323 Catherine Street, Victoria West, overlooking Lime Bay. On this property there is situate a five roomed cottage. Higher or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Tenders marked "Tender for purchase of mortgaged property" should be sent to Messrs. Barnard Robertson, Heisterman & Tait, 10th Floor, B. C. Permanent Loan Building, Victoria, B. C., Solicitors for the Mortgagee herein.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Swinerton & Muirgrave, Fort Street, Victoria, B. C., or to the undersigned.

Dated at Victoria, B. C., the 12th day of November, 1918.

Schwab Says Emergency Fleet Corporation Will Carry Out Programme

New York, Nov. 14.—Charles M. Schwab, general manager of the United States Emergency Fleet Corporation, was guest of honor here last night at the first of a series of dinners planned in honor of "Nation Builders" by the Society of Arts and Sciences. More than 1,000 prominent men and women were present to pay their respects to Mr. Schwab, who was acclaimed "the master mind of American shipbuilding."

The Emergency Fleet Corporation, Mr. Schwab declared, will go through with its programme calling for 13,000 tons of shipping, though the war is ended.

During October, he said, 416,000 tons of shipping had been placed in operation, bringing the total tonnage built by the Corporation above the 3,000,000 mark. During the present month it was hoped to place 500,000 more tons in commission.

Mr. Schwab paid high tribute to the shipworkers, whose loyalty, he declared, had made possible the remarkable achievements of the Corporation.

Sound Teeth
Gives That Clean Energetic Appearance

You men who value your appearance as a business asset should not look upon money expended on your teeth as a needless expenditure. Rather you should look upon it as a sum to be set aside for depreciation—a sum to be expended regularly to keep your teeth sound, clean, wholesome and efficient.

Let me talk to you upon this subject. Phone for an appointment. Attention NOW means freedom from tooth and stomach trouble in the future. Any expense you are put to now is nothing to what will be necessary six months, a year, maybe two years from now. Your teeth simply cannot get well if let alone. They must have skilled dental attention.

APPOINTED AGENTS
FOR FRENCH SHIPS
BUILDING IN B. C.

Offices Will Be Opened in Victoria and Vancouver by Thorn-dyke-Trenholme Co., Inc.

NINETY-TWO VESSELS ARE UNDER FIRM'S DIRECTION

The announcement is made that the Thorn-dyke-Trenholme Company, Inc., of Seattle, has been appointed operating agents for all vessels under construction in British Columbia for the French Government, approximately fifty in number.

Offices will be immediately opened in Victoria by the Thorn-dyke-Trenholme Company in connection with the twenty 3,000-ton wooden steamships being built here by the Foundation Company of British Columbia, Ltd., and an office will also be opened at Vancouver where vessels of smaller tonnage are under construction. This will give the company a complete chain of offices on the Pacific coast.

The fifty ships building on the Pacific seaboard of Canada for the French Government are in various stages of construction, eight keels being down at the Victoria yards of the Foundation Company, and six vessels being well advanced in hull construction.

It is stated that as soon as the vessels building on this side of the border are completed they will be taken to Seattle, the operating headquarters of the Thorn-dyke-Trenholme Co., from where they will be dispatched to sea. Most of the vessels will load flour and other foodstuffs for France direct.

The announcement of the appointment of the Thorn-dyke-Trenholme Company as operating agents for the British Columbia vessels is made by J. D. Trenholme, who recently went to New York in connection with the purchase of six motorships by the French Government from the Lyall Shipbuilding Company, of North Vancouver, announcement of the $2,000,000 deal having been made yesterday.

Ninety-Two Ships.

With the fifty additional ships turned over to them, the Thorn-dyke-Trenholme Company will be operating agents for ninety-two French wooden ships, all North Pacific Coast products. This includes the forty wooden cargo carriers built for France at the Tacoma and Portland shipyards of the Foundation Company, and the two steamers constructed at the Anderson shipyard at Kirkland.

Thirty-five of these forty-two ships have been chartered, outfitted and dispatched by the Thorn-dyke-Trenholme Company. The seven ships, for which charters have not yet been arranged by the operating agents, are still under construction and will not be completed for about six weeks. Of the forty Foundation Company ships, for which the Thorn-dyke-Trenholme Company are operating agents, twenty have sailed and seven are loading in coast ports for voyage to France.

R. J. Ringwood, former vice-president of the Pacific Steamship Company, is at the head of the San Francisco office and M. O. Seale, formerly with the Donald Steamship Company, of New York, is in charge of the Portland office. H. W. Rose, of the Foundation Company, states that the men to have charge of the Victoria and Vancouver offices have not been selected.

The big responsibility turned over to the firm by the French Government is in recognition of the satisfactory manner in which the Thorn-dyke-Trenholme has acted as agents for the Foundation Company ships.

Others Scalded On

SHIP AT NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 14.—Two men were killed and two were badly scalded when a steam valve burst on an American steamer in the service of the navy while at her pier here to-day. The men killed were Lieut. Alexander W. Walls and Sylvester Tenney, foreman of a civilian crew of mechanics.

In a similar accident on the ship about a week ago twelve men were seriously burned.

GOOD PROGRESS ON

SCHOONERS BUILDING

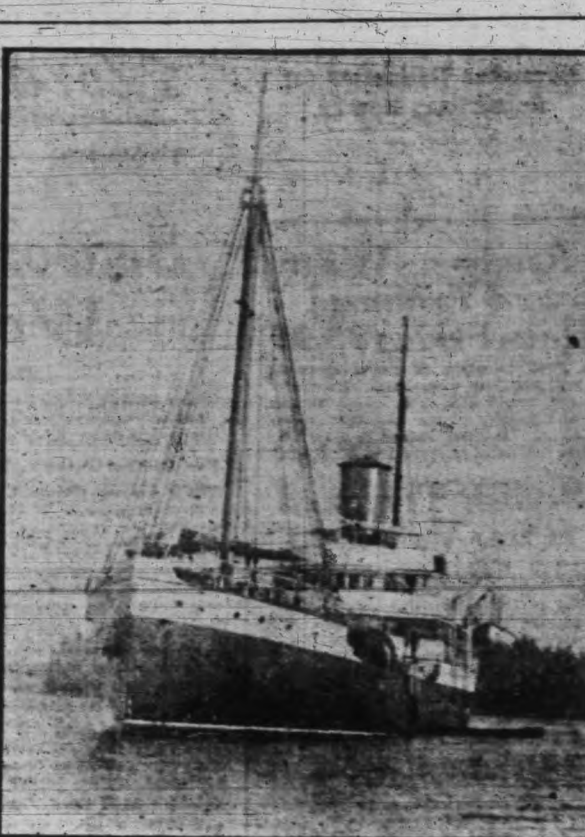

AT CHOLBERG SHIPYARD

Good progress is being made at the Mud Bay yard of the Cholberg Ship Company in the construction of wooden vessels for Norwegian interests.

The first schooner hull is in frame and the stern-post in position. A start was made to-day in erecting square-frames on keel No. 2.

Manager Chris. Cholberg says slow lumber deliveries have had the effect of delaying construction.

Salvage Steamer Tees Returns to Port From Scene of Vanderbilt Reef Disaster

Gold bullion valued at $130,000 was recovered from the wreck of the C. P. R. steamer Princess Sophia by the salvage steamer Tees, which arrived in port last night from the scene of the greatest marine disaster in Pacific coast annals.

The recovery of the gold was made by divers from the forward part of the wreck, which is still clinging to a ledge abutting from the precipitous sides of the treacherous Vanderbilt Reef.

When it was seen that the Princess Sophia was a total loss the salvage experts remained in the vicinity of the wreck for some days with the object of recovering valuables from the submerged hull. The wrecking outfit was greatly handicapped by the heavy gales which continued to sweep down the Lynn Canal and the salvage operations were carried out under the most dangerous conditions. From the cruising launch Santa Rita, which was chartered for the purpose, the divers from the Tees were lowered into the forward hold, and succeeded in first locating boxes containing gold valued at $62,000. This valuable freight was consigned to the Wells Fargo Express Co., and was stowed in the express room adjoining the mail room in the between-deck forward.

No Bodies in Ship.

A search was also made for bodies of persons that might have been trapped as the ship went down, but no traces of any victims were found by the groping divers working in the submerged ship.

Thomas Allan, Superintendent of the R. C. Salvage Company, and Capt. W. H. Logan, local representative for the London Salvage Association, after a cursory examination arrived at the conclusion that the Princess Sophia was beyond possibility of salvage, and when it was seen that nothing more could be accomplished, the Tees set out on her return trip.

Returned to Wreck.

After getting a short distance from the wreck the Tees was notified by wireless of the possibility of locating another gold, and the ship returned to the wreck. This time her divers succeeded in salvaging gold ingots valued at about $70,000.

Superintendent Allan says from the forward of the ship the Princess Sophia appeared, and it is thought that the vessel broke completely in two. There was no indication of the superstructure aft of the stack, which was also missing.

Rough Trip South.

Capt. Hewson reported a dirty voyage south. Almost continuous gales were experienced, and the Tees got a severe dusting. She is a splendid sea boat, however, and nothing happened beyond shipping a little water.

The worst gale was experienced while crossing Queen Charlotte Sound. It usually takes four hours to cross the Sound, but on this occasion the Tees was twelve hours doing the trick.

On her way here the salvage ship touched at Ladysmith for bunker coal. This morning the crew of the Tees was paid off.

O. S. K. LINER LEFT

FOR ORIENTAL PORTS

SEVERAL HOURS LATE

On her outbound voyage to the Far East the Osaka Shosen Kaisha liner Arabia Maru reached here from Seattle at 1:20 a. m. to-day, and after embarking steamer passengers put to sea at 4:30 a. m. This is the first occasion that a regular liner of the O. S. K. fleet has entered and cleared port during the early morning hours. Usually the vessels of this fleet leave Seattle in the forenoon, and arrive here between 4 and 6 p. m. The Arabia Maru was delayed at Seattle this time by heavy freight shipments for the Orient.

Steamer Pennsylvania Burned to Water's Edge While Loading at Iquique

San Francisco, Nov. 14.—The Pacific Mail Company's steamer Pennsylvania sank at her dock at Iquique, Chile, November 13, after fire had burned her to the water's edge, according to advices received at the company's office here to-day.

No lives were reported lost.

The Pennsylvania, a vessel of 3,000 tons deadweight and valued at $600,000, was under charter to the United States Shipping Board. She left here October 30 to take a cargo of nitrate from Iquique to Honolulu.

Built in 1872, the Pennsylvania was originally on the Red Star Line between Philadelphia and Amsterdam.

Once Alaska Boat.

Seattle, Nov. 14.—The Pennsylvania was once owned by the Alaska S. S. Company, which operated here in Alaska waters. She was brought from the East coast in 1905 by Capt. John P. Hain, Seattle, Northwest district officer of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

TWO SURVEY SHIPS
FOR PACIFIC WATERS

Washington, Nov. 14.—Arrangements for the immediate building of two steel ships to be used for surveying purposes along the Pacific Coast were decided yesterday by Secretary of Commerce W. C. Redfield and the United States Shipping Board, Secretary Redfield announced.

The vessels will locate and mark shipping obstructions. Each will be of 1,000 tons, to cost $400,000. They will be fitted out so as to enable them to remain at sea six months at a time and are to be built by a Government plant on the Great Lakes.

Catarrh
Of the Stomach
Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to Recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bismarck Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucus from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach, while the Bismarck Magnesia is an excellent mucous membrane protectant. Moreover, the Bismarck Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and regulate its food content. Gastric, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow.

Bismarck Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist.

Don't confuse Bismarck Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milk, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure bismarck form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

MAY OPERATE STEEL
YARD AT ESQUIMALT

Lang Cove is Said to Be Favored by Victoria Machinery Depot for New Location

Although various tentative sites are under consideration by the Victoria Machinery Depot management, no decision has yet been reached regarding the location of the new shipyard for the building of steel vessels to the order of the Dominion Government.

Esquimalt harbor is considered the most logical place for the location of the new plant, and should the company be able to secure property at a fairly reasonable figure the indications are that the plant will be erected in the immediate vicinity of Lang Cove.

Since his return from Ottawa, C. J. V. Spratt, President of the Victoria Machinery Depot, has been inspecting prospective sites in the immediate vicinity of the city, but no definite negotiations have been entered into.

The company has contracted to build four steel freight steamships of 4,100 tons each. These vessels will cost $1,000,000 each. A two-way yard will be operated and the local firm has been given assurance of sufficient work to keep the plant busy for a number of years.

C. J. V. Spratt, President, and R. S. Neill, Manager, are at present in Seattle.

DECLARE AWARDS
NOT HIGH ENOUGH

Pending Appeal by Pacific Coast Organization Strike Vote Will Be Taken

Seattle, Nov. 14.—The Seattle Metal Trades Council, composed mainly of shipyard workers, has concurred in an appeal to be taken by the Pacific Coast Metal Trades Council from an award made recently by a Federal Wage Commission known as the Macy Board. The awards were not high enough the local body has decided.

Announcement was made yesterday that the Seattle council will suggest to the coast organization that, pending the outcome of the appeal, a strike vote be taken. Should the appeal be fruitless, and should the strike vote carry, the strike, according to the local workers' plans, would start December 8.

Seattle, Nov. 14.—Funeral services for ten of the victims of the wreck of the steamship Princess Sophia near Skagway, on October 25, were held in Seattle to-day. Bodies of several victims were shipped to other cities. A number of funerals are being arranged for to-morrow.

COMING HERE FOR NAVAL COLLEGE WORK

Winnipeg, Nov. 14.—A large party of imperial officers who passed West yesterday were in a cheerful mood. They are bound for Victoria to carry on the completion of dry-docks and a naval college at Esquimalt, and in conversation said there were manifestations of rejoicing at every station along the railway on Monday evening.

On the train, there was celebration, and all passengers relaxed and gave themselves up to expressions of good cheer and congratulations on the cessation of hostilities.

Speaking of the naval establishment on the Pacific Coast on the suggestion being made that operations there would soon cease, an officer said that the authorities had decided on re-establishing and utilizing the full facilities of the Esquimalt station.

"It will be needed for years, even to maintain the work to be accomplished in Siberia, and I have no doubt it will be utilized in the future as a naval training college for service on the Pacific."

FINANCIAL POSITION OF GREAT BRITAIN

London, Nov. 14.—In discussing the financial situation in the House of Commons yesterday, Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said that Great Britain had loaned to her allies during the war more than £465,000,000 and to the Dominions £218,000,000. Great Britain's debts abroad were not expected to exceed £1,000,000,000. The country could easily bear this, the Chancellor added, if labor and capital worked harmoniously together.

The Chancellor praised the part taken in the war by the Dominions and India. He promised definitely the Dominions would share in the peace negotiations.

Mr. Bonar Law said that with the exception of one clause, where President Wilson was not absolutely distinct everything which the Allies ever asked for could be claimed under the fourteen points enunciated by the President.

The Council has asked the Entente to occupy Armenia immediately.

JOE DOYLE HAS SIGNED BIG LEAGUE CONTRACT

Great Lakes, Ill., Nov. 14.—Joe Doyle, the "Babe Ruth" of Great Lakes, has signed a big league contract. Doyle is a St. Louis amateur who played third base for the First Regimental Rifle, one of the strongest clubs on the station. He broke into the limelight by flogging a home run over the Camp Dewey Drill Hall, a smash that might be compared to a lift over the left fence of any major league park.

Not only did Doyle lead the league in hitting, but some of his slugging records are remarkable for an amateur. He gathered a dozen home runs and nine triples.

He has signed with the St. Louis Cardinals, the contract calling for his services after he is mustered out of the navy. A special contract for him was drawn by the national commission and forwarded to St. Louis.

Doyle is twenty-one years old, hits and throws right handed and uses his head.

BIG UNIVERSITY GAME THANKSGIVING DAY

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 14.—The University of Nebraska football manager is signaling for an attractive Thanksgiving Day engagement, the contest to be played in Lincoln.

Prof. R. B. Scott, athletic manager, is considering switching the Nebraska-Northwestern game, scheduled for November 23, to Turkey Day. Northwestern was promised a $4,000 guarantee for the November 23 tilt when the game was contracted for, but recently efforts were made to induce the Northwestern management to cut that figure nearly in half on account of the very poor financial opening of the season here. However, the original will stand, according to Prof. Scott, if transfer to the holiday can be arranged.

THREE HUNDRED TEAMS ENTER STATE BOWLING

Green Bay, Wis., Nov. 14.—Three hundred teams will probably compete in the Wisconsin state bowling tournament to be held here in the winter, according to W. F. Fenske, secretary of the executive committee of the Wisconsin State Bowling Association.

Despite the fact many bowlers are with the colors, board members are confident of a large entry.

War savings and thrift stamps will be the prizes, substituting for the cash prizes of former years. The tournament, according to plans, will open February 1 and continue for three weeks.

MAJORITY OF ISLAND DISTRICTS HAVE WON THEIR HONOR FLAGS

Island Should Sweep Past Its Objective Before End of Drive

LADYSMITH HAS NOW RAISED HER QUOTA

Twelve out of fifteen up-Island Victory Loan districts have now swept by their objectives, and are still marching steadily along the Victory road. Though badly affected by the influenza epidemic, Ladysmith this morning topped her $100,000 quota and raised another $1,000 for good measure. Yesterday won her Honor Flag, and, according to G. H. Dawson, the island by to-night, will have invested the $1,000,000 required of her, with two more days to go. Many of the districts have already won numerous crowns to their flags, and each day centres which have gone far past their quotas report a still larger subscription. In fact, say the officials, the response of some of the little scattered settlements is almost incredible.

Ladysmith's Achievement.
The Honor Flag allotment for Ladysmith was set at $100,000, but owing to the effects of influenza during the last few weeks it seemed very doubtful if the city would be able to toe the mark. It was with great gratification, therefore, that Mr. Dawson announced this morning that Ladysmith had invested $101,000. The Honor Flag will be shipped up the island to-day.

Duncan is Also "Over."
Duncan has also lined up with the foremost of the island centres, having raised $181,000, $1,000 better than its quota, thereby qualifying for a flag. Parksville and Courtenay swept past their objectives last night, and are still continuing their contributions to the prosperity of Canada. Cobble Hill, however, still leads the whole island, having won twelve crowns to the flag, which has already been hoisted. Cassidy holds second place with seven decorations.

Union Bay.
Union Bay is still piling dollars into the Victory Chest, having long since reached and passed its objective. Its quota was set at $10,000 and now it has invested $20,000. It was announced this morning: Four crowns, therefore, will be dispatched without delay to decorate the honor flag of the district.

HANDS OF VICTORY CLOCK ARE PUSHED AROUND BY CONTEST

Hundreds of Firms Lined Up in Emblem Competition

LIST OF PATRIOTIC CONCERNS GROWING

One of the most powerful forces which is moving the hands of Greater Victoria's victory clock around toward her $5,000,000 objective, is the Honor Emblem competition which now includes in its two branches most of the firms in the city. Each day more concerns demand emblems, announcing that they have joined the growing army of hundred per cent patriots.

Practically every store in town and many in the suburbs are now displaying emblems, and many of the leading concerns are vying with each other in a race for the highest largest subscription.

"About 350 names of firms and families," said George Bushby, in charge of the competition, "are now recorded upon the Honor Emblem Roll. That indicates that every employee in a firm and every member of a family has subscribed to the Victory Loan."

"Victoria should strive to outstrip all other cities in the Dominion in the matter of number of applications per capita of population. And remember that the Honor Emblem is the sure route over which we must travel in order to wrest the Honor Flag from our energetic sister city, Vancouver."

Buy Bonds for Babies.
"Wednesday being a half-holiday," said Mr. Bushby, "there was a slight falling off in the list of firms qualifying for the Honor Emblem, but many entire families were added to the select circle, even the baby receiving a bond in commemoration of the armistice. These babies will be proud of their Honor Bond a few years hence, for history is making rapidly these days, and the 1918 Bond will be treasured in many a family."

"It is very gratifying to note the patriotic spirit of the great bulk of employers, for it only requires a little explanation to convince the average employer that he should do everything possible to assist his employees to subscribe to the Victory Loan. In consequence, many firms are taking out bonds for their people, and arranging payments over the period of a year in monthly instalments."

The Instalment Plan.
"The Bank Victory Loan plan is also an admirable one for investors who wish to subscribe but who will have to pay for their bonds out of future savings, for the banks will carry investors until August 15, on the monthly instalment plan."

Employer Responded.
"The proprietor of a firm," said Mr. Bushby, "employing three people, wanted an Honor Emblem because he had subscribed to the Victory Loan. His employees could not do so, I pointed out to him that the Honor Emblem campaign was established in order to encourage employers to subscribe to the loan as a part of esprit de corps, and that it would be a great action for the employer to make a proposal to his employees to make such financial arrangements as would permit of his people subscribing to the loan. He thoroughly agreed to the proposal and went straight back to his store to put it into practice, and will undoubtedly display the coveted emblem before to-night."
